PREFACE.

THIS little book needs, I think, no recommendation. It will both explain and commend itself, and I hope and augur for it a very grateful reception from very many. But as the writers think that a prefatory word from one who bears my office may help it, I give this, with a deep sense of unworthiness to touch such a thing, but willingly alike for friendship's sake and from much gratitude for their gift to the Church.

For such a book as this comes to us as one encouraging sign the more, amidst our difficulties and controversies, of the deepened life of our Church, and of those spiritual forces out of sight to which perhaps we owe it that in spite of all our faults and follies the Church's work is allowed to continue and to go forward. From two of the quiet places which remain in our noisy time—from a country parsonage and a religious community—it comes to us for our help. New and old meet in it: the fragrant treasures of devotion bequeathed to us by the centuries of the Church's past, together with the stress and complexity of the modern struggle, and the practical desire to pray requickened by the blessed revival of life and work. We cannot but have good hope for the Church in which such work is doing, and such worship is being offered.

Devotion which is heart-language must needs take many moulds, suited to differences of temperament and training, and the same forms will not suit all equally. But in this book there is room for considerable variety. There is fulness in the number and detail of special collects; greater swiftness and concentration in the litanies; extreme brevity for the very busy in the "general" prayer for each day; and freedom with guidance, in the schemes or heads of intercession, for those who wish only to be reminded methodically what to pray for, and then to be left to pray in their own words, or without words.

Particularly do I wish to ask attention to the treatment here given to Thanksgiving and to what is said about it. I think there are some to whom this may come almost as a discovery of a new and sunny country near their home: I am sure that all of us have need in this as much as in any matter to grow in grace.

I hope that the little book may travel a way of peace. I think that there is nothing in it that should offend, and that it may be widely accepted, even if here and there some omit what others delight to use.

The Prayers for the Departed in particular are taken chiefly from ancient sources, and have the reserve and modesty which becomes those who remember our great ignorance, and in the lack of open revelation can do little more than mutely put before the mercy and care of GOD those whom, behind the veil, we think of, in that "holy keeping," to which we must so soon trust ourselves. The book, it will be remembered, is one of private devotion, and private devotion, guided by the precedents of antiquity, the practice of many loyal sons of the Reformed Church, and the instincts of the Christian heart, need not and will not bind itself by the austere rule of reticence which, under the strong stress of reaction from mediæval abuse, the Church thought well to impose upon herself in this respect in public worship. The matter is eminently one for the Apostolic rule of mutual toleration.

The Kalendar (itself again for private use) claims no authority, and no two people would draw exactly the same list.

May GOD of His grace give us less controversy and more devotion, and draw more of His people into that nearness to Himself in which there is indeed boldness and access with confidence through JESUS by the SPIRIT, but also the reserve of the veiled face, and the kept foot, and the tongue that fears to utter what it understands not, things too wonderful for it which it knows not!

And may each to whom this book comes gain from it some treasure, greater or less, of help, to be returned through prayer to the Treasury of the Church!

EDW. ROFFEN.

EXPLANATORY PREFACE.

THE following scheme of Intercession is not intended to be used by any one person in its entirety. The endeavour has rather been to provide for the varying needs of different minds, or of the same mind on different occasions.

Thus, some may prefer simply to use the outline prefixed to each day, as a guide and reminder to their own mental prayer.

Others will doubtless find it more helpful to use the collects as allotted, word for word, dwelling carefully on them until they become the natural expression of their own thought and desire.

While there are others again to whom a litany more especially appeals, and for their use each day's intercessions have been thrown into that form.

A division has been made in each outline as a suggestion to those who may prefer to make the scheme a fortnight's rather than a week's exercise.

The Thanksgivings which form the second part of the book have also been arranged for a week, and follow a threefold order, each day having one distinct idea embodied in it. But they may, as has been suggested for the Intercessions, be fitly spread over a fortnight, or even three weeks, rather than a week.

In Section I. the thanksgiving is for mercies corresponding to the prayers offered on one of the days of intercession. In Section II. are subjects of personal thanksgiving of the same character. And in Section III. the thanksgiving dwells on some particular revelation of GOD to man, which seems most to bear on the subject of the day.

The acts themselves are mostly taken from the book of Psalms, and thus unite those who use them with the countless multitude of holy souls, and our Blessed LORD Himself, who once made these very words the vehicle of their prayers, of their thankfulness, and praise.

As an alternative method the same series of thanksgivings is repeated condensed into a tabular form, and followed by a brief verbal act of thanksgiving.

Besides these forms of Intercession and Thanksgiving, some additional matter is given. First, a few prayers for special occasions, and a number of collects for communities and societies. Secondly, such collects from the Book of Common Prayer as are suitable for intercession, and do not occur in the ordinary daily Services of the Church, have been numbered and printed at the end, and are referred to in the body of the book as alternatives to the other prayers. Thirdly, an Horology is inserted as a suggestion by means of which the day, as it passes, may be used systematically for the purposes of intercession, by those who through press of work have not much space of time which they can devote to that purpose; and appended to this are some additional forms and suggestions for Intercession.

This handbook owes very much to the Manual of Intercession, published by Father Benson, which has been of so great service to the Church, and still remains the great storehouse of intercessory prayer. A great debt of gratitude is due to the S.S.J.E. for leave to draw freely upon it; also to the various communities who gave leave for the insertion of their own special collects, and to others whose labours have been utilized. The list of collects and their sources given in the index is both an acknowledgement of indebtedness to previous books and in itself an interesting historical table.[1]

A. L. I.

LONGWORTH, Easter, 1898.

It only remains for the compilers to add that this book has arisen out of their keen sense of their own failures in grappling with the work of Intercession, and out of their difficulty in even realizing at all that there is such a work as that of Thanksgiving. They confidently hope therefore that it may be a help to others in the same difficulties, and so redound to the glory of God. They cannot but express their wonder and thankfulness that they are allowed to assist, in however small a degree, in such a work.

Laus Deo.

PREFACE TO THE SMALLER EDITION.

ON the first publication of this little book seven years ago a demand arose for a more compendious edition of it from some who did not need the blank leaves, and preferred a thinner volume. This new edition is designed to meet this need rather than supersede the older edition. The only substantial changes are the substitution of a new form of Litany for Saturday, and the addition of an alternative short scheme of Thanksgiving for each.

The best thanks of the compilers are due to the Rev. H. Jeaffreson for allowing us to reproduce the picture by Meacci in his possession as a frontispiece.

In issuing a new edition they cannot but recall that the welcome with which the little book has been received has added one more to their many causes of joyous thanksgiving to God

Soli Deo Gloria.

INTRODUCTION.

IT is an undoubted part of every Christian's duty to pray for others; and, like many another duty, intercession is an ever widening one: it grows with the growth of the Church and her needs: it grows with the growing complexity of human society, as new classes and objects rise up to claim its help; it grows with the advance of human knowledge, as new mysteries of GOD's work and ways are revealed to us: it grows with every acceleration in locomotion, and every advance in intelligence—in fact almost every step forward in civilisation seems to demand some correlative advance in intercessory prayer.

The duty of intercession is also an ever widening element in each individual life: as a man's interests and experiences widen, so must his prayers: at first his horizon is narrow, limited to a small home circle then he goes out into the larger world, and that too claims his intercessions: and bit by bit, as friends, acquaintances, and interests grow, he must keep pace with all this expansion, not only in the activity of his outer life, but also in all the hidden energy of his life of devotion and supplication.

Again, if he is a man of GOD, there must be a development in his view as to what is a proper subject for intercession: he begins, alas, too often, with a narrow view: he does not see how centrifugal and wide-reaching is this power of intercessory prayer: he looks to other things to accomplish his objects, to advance his interests, and to fulfil many of his best projects. But gradually, as he is a man of GOD, he learns otherwise: he finds that he accomplishes more of GOD's purposes and of his own best hopes by a short quiet half-hour of prayer than by days of restless activity: he no longer denies a place in his intercessions to certain parts of his aims and desires on the ground that they are unsuitable subjects for prayer: on the contrary, he insists on finding a place there for them all, for he finds how prayer, far more than anything else, brings him into effective touch with the widest circles of his fellow-men, the largest range of human interests, and with his own best and highest aspirations, no less than with the eternal purposes of GOD.

He seizes with new zeal upon this power, hitherto left so woefully dormant; and as he gives himself more and more to the exercise of it, still more his horizon widens and his sympathies extend, until he sets himself at last to do no less a task than to embrace all men and all things within the sphere of his prayer, defying the narrow limits of home and friendship and country and race, defying the restrictions of time and space, the distinctions of earth and paradise and heaven; and reaching out yet unsatisfied into the infinite with an extravagance of minute and ardent affection, whose only justification lies in this, that it is some poor copy of the boundless love of Almighty GOD.

All this implies that intercession is a very difficult and exacting task, and one that will often strain severely the powers of any man who seriously gives himself to it.

But, on the other hand, it is full of its own joys and encouragements. Things look their best and hopefullest when a man has prayed over them; the characters which are so discouraging and baffling are lit up with a new gleam of unsuspected possibilities; circumstances which seemed inextricably confused look simpler, and ways open out to view where before there seemed to be only a dead block.

Again, intercession takes the sting out of anxiety: a man's thoughts when he is anxious must continually revert to the cause of his anxiety, and rest upon it: and this is bound to be extremely wearing unless he has learnt to turn worry into intercession, and transmute every anxious troubled thought into an anxious but confident prayer. But when he has learnt this, his anxiety is no longer wearing, but on the contrary, uplifting and inspiring, whenever it confronts him, he turns the worry into prayer, and having done so he can then afford to dismiss the thought for the time: no doubt it will revert to him again later on, but only so as once again to force him to raise up his anxious heart Godward, and find in that action the welcome lifting of his immediate load of care, as well as the ultimate solution of all his trouble.

Intercession is thus an absorbing occupation; because of its greatness and because of its minuteness it makes immense claims on all who will recognize them. But the rewards which it offers are proportionately great; for it enriches abundantly the man who prays as well as those for whom he prays, and renders a parched and gasping world more able to receive the refreshing showers of GOD's blessing.

Side by side with Intercession there are here given some parallel schemes of Thanksgiving. These two religious exercises must always lie close together; not merely because prayer is heard and answered, and therefore in itself it entails of necessity a corresponding act of gratitude, but also because of the close kinship which exists between intercession and thanksgiving, as joint factors in the development of the life of holiness in the soul.

As Intercession is the sovereign remedy for selfishness, so thanksgiving is the sovereign remedy for despondency.

It is only through a delusion that we can ever imagine that there is more in the world to cause us depression than there is to evoke our thankfulness: it is only an attempt of the devil to magnify himself and his works above Almighty GOD and His works.

If we would avoid being victims of this delusion and be able to refuse to be bullied into depression about the world at large or the salvation of our own souls, we must learn and practise the art of thanksgiving.

Here too we must look for a growing and a widening process.

A man will often begin his conscious religious life with no clear method or system of thanksgiving: such bits of thanks and praise as he offers to GOD are merely the spontaneous outcome of a generous heart.

unregulated and fitful: his thanksgiving, being thus unmethodical and emotional, is liable to fail him just in the moments when it is most needed to keep true within him the balance of his soul. The time will probably come when he finds himself inevitably confronted with the terrifying mysteries of sin and sorrow and death, and then he may realize that he has nothing to oppose to them, except, it may be, the animal buoyancy of youth, and nothing wherewith to protect himself except a thin covering of semi-christianized stoicism. These soon fail him, and then what has he left to prevent him from being the victim either of a jaundice of sour disappointment or a palsy of selfish indifference?

Happy is he who long ere this has laid the foundation of a growing and deepening habit of detailed and systematic thanksgiving! For thanksgiving is the true cure for depression.

In thinking of depression and its cure it is well to recognize that there are two sorts of depression, the legitimate and the illegitimate. It is legitimate that a man, as he finds himself confronted with sin for which he is not responsible, or with sorrow which he cannot alleviate, should feel a real grief weighing down his heart: indeed he can do no less, and GOD would have him sorrow over all this: but He has given him thanksgiving as a legitimate counterpoise to the sorrow, so that at one time he may turn from bewailing the blight of sin to rejoicing in the triumph of Redemption, or at another time may dispel the lowering clouds of sorrow by thankful recognition of GOD's over-ruling providence and the glory of His invincible Love.

It is legitimate too that a man should be downcast at his own sins and his own sinfulness: but here again thanksgiving is GOD's counterpoise. It is correlative to penitence; for, when the sins are forgiven, penitence has done its work and thanksgiving takes its place. Not that there is no place left for penitence after forgiveness has been assured; for sinfulness still remains only too apparent in the present, to say nothing of the indellible memory of past guilt: but when sin is forgiven, then penitence has a new place and work, and, instead of claiming the first place in the penitent's heart, serves rather as a foil to the thanksgiving. It comes about in this way; the forgiven sinner thanks GOD for all his past mercies: even as he does so, there rises up in his heart a deep sense of shame at his own past wrong doing, which forms such a hideous contrast to GOD's mercies: for a moment the shame may threaten to overpower the thanksgiving; but this must not be: the shame must only be permitted temporarily to colour the thanksgiving, and finally, far from overpowering, it will even intensify it. The thanksgiving must overpower the sense of shame, because GOD's mercies are after all so much greater even than our sins: and the thanksgiving will emerge from this conflict of emotions only intensified, purified, and made more exultant by the conflict.

The triumph of GOD's mercy is, that it outdoes man's sin: and so the triumph of thanksgiving consists in this, that it outdoes a man's feeling of penitence, and raises him out of himself to forget himself in the all-absorbing effort to render unto GOD His due return of love and praise.

But there is also the illegitimate form of depression, for which thanksgiving is the cure:—that fog of gloom which seems so unaccountable, but which nevertheless is very real and common.

There is the depression which does not come from a healthy realization of the horror of sin or the tragedy of sorrow: it is an unexplained mood, which may be found to have many unsuspected causes, if one has the wisdom to trace them, but at bottom is nothing else but a malicious delusion of the devil, who knows how by his enchantments to bring on a thick darkness, that in it the unwary may stumble and fall.

If a man treats this state as a serious reality, and questions himself about it, and gives it credit and attention, he is likely enough only to fall into worse perplexity and depression. He must test it then to see whether it is a real thing or an unreal delusion, whether it is legitimate or illegitimate. The test will be to confront it with thanksgiving: this will not only be its touchstone to shew whether it is real or unreal, lawful or unlawful, but will also be in either case its cure.

If the depression is a groundless delusion of the devil, it cannot stand before a strong sober act of divine thanksgiving: it will vanish into the nothingness out of which it came. If it is a real and legitimate depression, it has been already pointed out how thanksgiving will prove its corrective.

Much might be said of the growing need of habits of thanksgiving as a cure for depression: it is increasingly easy nowadays to be overwrought and overdone in body, mind, and soul, and so to put oneself at the mercy of despondency both legitimate and illegitimate. It is increasingly easy to seek for the remedy of this contagion in the wrong place, that is, to have recourse to the dangerous palliatives of pleasure and excitement, rather than to the sound specific of thanksgiving.

God grant that this little book may do something to point out and apply the true cure!

But it would be very derogatory to think of thanksgiving merely as a cure for depression, as a mere remedy to be stored up and held in readiness against the cloudy and dark day. Rather it must be the constant companion of every day and hour, by its continual presence brightening what is dark, and lightening up that which is already bright with an unearthly radiance.

It is strange to reflect that gratitude is such a difficult thing, and that thanksgiving needs so much cultivation. It seems almost insulting both to God and to man alike to have to recommend thanksgiving as desirable either for its own sake or for the joy that it brings with it: it ought to be spontaneous, inevitable, an irrepressible fountain welling up out of love and gratitude and flooding its whole surroundings. But the fact is that it is not so: the natural heart of man is hard and insensible to God's mercies, is cold and ungrateful even when it is conscious of them. So thanksgiving has to be recommended, has to be doggedly practised, has to be laboriously learnt.

But he knows nothing of happiness who has not at least begun to learn how he is in everything to give thanks: and he knows little of the nature and will of Almighty GOD who does not recognize that in so doing he is not merely consulting his own selfish interests but performing also one of his highest duties to GOD.

For in giving thanks the thankful heart not only comes to realize its own profound capacity for drinking in unfailing happiness, but also it begins to overpass the measure of its own feeble powers, to soar aloft above the limits of its own narrow surroundings, drawn upward by ties of duty and love to the throne of majesty and mercy.

And so the personal act of thanksgiving, arising from gratitude for particular mercies, runs up into the more impersonal act of worship, wherein, as the world recedes out of sight, and the clogging details of material life disappear, we lose ourselves in the presence of GOD in glorifying GOD for being what He is.

INTERCESSION.

That intercession is a great and necessary part of Christian devotion, is very evident from Scripture.

The first followers of CHRIST seem to support all their love, and to maintain all their intercourse and correspondence, by mutual prayers for one another.

S. Paul, whether he writes to Churches or particular persons, shows his intercession to be perpetual for them, that they are the constant subject of his prayers. . . .

Apostles and great Saints did not only thus benefit and bless particular Churches and private persons, but they themselves also received graces from GOD by the prayers of others. . . .

This was the ancient friendship of Christians, uniting and cementing their hearts not by worldly considerations, or human passions, but by the mutual communication of spiritual blessings, by prayers and thanksgivings to GOD for one another. . . .

A frequent intercession with GOD, earnestly beseeching Him to forgive the sins of all mankind, to bless them with His providence, enlighten them with His Spirit, and bring them to everlasting happiness, is the divinest exercise that the heart of man can be engaged in.

Be daily, therefore, on your knees, in a solemn, deliberate performance of this devotion, praying for others in such forms, with such length, importunity, and earnestness, as you use for yourself; and you will find all little, ill-natured passions die away, your heart grow great and generous, delighting in the common happiness of others, as you used only to delight in your own. . . .

This is the natural effect of a general intercession for all mankind. But the greatest benefits of it are then received, when it descends to such particular instances as our state and condition in life more particularly require of us.

AW, A Serious Call, ch. XXI.

Before thou prayest prepare thyself:
And be not as one that tempteth God

Ecclus. xviii. 23

When prayer delights thee least then learn to say,
'Soul, now is deepest need that thou should'st pray.'

Abp. Trench.

Lorde, some prayer Thou kenne us,
That somewhat might mirthe us or mend us:
Fro' all fandyng unfaythful Thou fend us,
Here in this worlde of life while we laste.

York Mystery Plays, xxviii. 30.

A PREPARATION FOR PRAYER.

LORD, teach us to pray.
Thou that hearest the prayer,
Unto Thee shall all flesh come.

Ask, and it shall be given you,
Seek, and ye shall find,
Knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

For every one that asketh receiveth ;
if he be a worshipper of GOD,
and doeth His will, GOD heareth.
If he abide in Thee
and Thy words abide in him, he shall ask what he will
and it shall be done unto him.
If he ask in faith, nothing wavering ;
not as the hypocrites,
that pray so that they may be seen of men ;
not as the heathen with vain repetitions, thinking to be heard for their much speaking ;
if he pray always and never faint, and cry day and night
till GOD avenge His elect, at least because of his importunity
GOD heareth ;

and he shall receive whatever he ask in prayer believing with confidence, continuing instant,
that his prayers be not hindered,
nor be turned into sin.
If he keep Thy commandments and do those things that are pleasing in Thy sight,
his effectual fervent prayer availeth much,
and he receiveth whatever he asketh.

Watch and pray,
that ye enter not into temptation.

Yea, LORD, Thou rewarder of them that diligently seek Thee,
Who art rich unto all that call upon Thee ;
the spirit indeed is willing,
but the flesh is weak.
Grant me then grace by Thine ineffable mercy like Thee to be in an agony, to strive in prayer,
to wrestle till the breaking of the day ;
watching in prayer with all perseverance and supplication for all saints ; without ceasing,
continuing in supplications night and day,
in spirit and in truth,
in union with the ceaseless prayer of the Church ;
that my prayer may come up for a memorial before Thee.

And as of old the place was shaken when the HOLY GHOST helped the infirmity of the prayer of the Church ;
and as there was a great earthquake
when the Apostles prayed and sang praises unto GOD ;
so may it be now
while even I pray and praise Thee ;
to the pulling down of strongholds of Satan,
to the glorifying of GOD the FATHER in Thee ;
in Whose name I call,
in Whose promise I trust,
JESUS, my Intercessor, my SAVIOUR,
my LORD, and my GOD.

SUBJECTS FOR DAILY INTERCESSION.

It is suggested that these should be taken after the General Subjects for each day.

1.—Special Persons. Relations, Friends, Benefactors, Departed.

2.—Special Claims. People, Needs, Obligations, Guilds, etc.

3.—All whom I shall meet (or have met) to-day; all who pray for me or desire my prayers.

REMEMBER, I beseech Thee, O LORD my GOD, all these Thy servants [whose names Thou knowest]: pour out upon all the riches of Thy mercy, and give to each the desire of his heart unto salvation.

Remember, O LORD, all those whose names I have not recalled through my ignorance or forgetfulness, or because of the multitude of claims; for Thou knowest the name and condition of each one, Thou knowest each one from his mother's womb.

For Thou, O LORD, art the help of the helpless; the hope of the hopeless; the healer of the sick; a shelter in the tempest; a refuge from the storm.

Be Thou to all their all, for Thou art conscious of each man's request and circumstances and need;

Through the grace and mercy and loving-kindness of Thine only-begotten SON, with Whom in the unity of the Holy and Life-giving Spirit Thou art blessed and glorified now and for evermore.

SUNDAY.

With all prayer and supplication praying at all seasons in the Spirit, and watching thereunto in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints, and on my behalf, that utterance may be given unto me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Gospel.

Eph. vi. 18, 19.

Our blessed LORD hath recommended His love to us, as the pattern and example of our love to one another. As, therefore, He is continually making intercession for us all, so ought we to intercede and pray for one another.

W. LAW, A Serious Call, ch. XX.

Far is the time, remote from human sight,
When war and discord on the earth shall cease
Yet every prayer for universal peace
Avails the blessed time to expedite.

H. COLERIDGE

For the Church Catholic.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, do wonders as of old by Thine outstretched arm for the protection of all Thy faithful people; that our enemies may be restrained by Thy mighty power, and Thou mayest keep us undisturbed in the exercise of catholic faith and christian life; through.

For the Church of England

O LORD, we beseech Thee to visit with Thy grace and heavenly benediction Thy Church in this land. Give to our bishops and pastors (. . . . .), wisdom and holiness, and unwearied zeal for souls. Forgive the sins of Thy people, and bestow upon us the increase of faith, hope, and love. Grant us to be all of one heart and one mind, that we may diligently do Thy will and show forth Thy glory before the world; through.

14. O Lord, we beseech Thee, let Thy continual pity cleanse and defend . . .

The Church in which I live.

O MERCIFUL God, bless this particular Church in which I live; make it, and all the members of it, sound in faith and holy in life, that they may serve Thee and Thou bless them.

13. Keep, we beseech Thee, O LORD, Thy Church with Thy perpetual . . .

SEPARATED.

HAVE mercy, O LORD, upon all those who, though living in ignorance of Thy covenanted gifts of grace, are yet studious to serve Thee with sincerity of purpose. Regard not their separation, but accept their good will, and grant that they, laying aside all human prejudice, may listen to the voice of Thy HOLY SPIRIT, and be made partakers of His blessed renewal in the unity of the Body of Thy dear SON; through the same.

FOR BISHOPS.

O GOD, Who rulest Thy people with fatherly love, give the spirit of wisdom to all who have received from Thee the authority of government; that the welfare of Thy holy sheep may turn to the everlasting joy of their pastors; through.

ALMIGHTY everlasting GOD, by Whose eternal wisdom all things consist, have regard unto our prayers, and maintain in godliness the bishops whom Thou hast chosen; that under their governance the christian flock may receive the increase and the reward of their faith; through.

30. Grant, we beseech Thee, to Thy servants such grace, that they . . .

FOR PRIESTS

O GOD, Whose ways are all mercy and truth, carry on Thy gracious work, and bestow by Thy benefits, what human frailty cannot attain; that they who attend upon the heavenly mysteries may be grounded in perfect faith, and shine forth conspicuous by the purity of their souls; through.

O GOD, by Whose decree the course of the world is directed, look favourably upon Thy servants whom Thou hast called to the order of the priesthood: and that their service may be well pleasing unto Thee, mercifully renew in them evermore the gifts which Thou hast given them; through.

1. O LORD JESU CHRIST, Who at Thy first coming didst send Thy messenger . . .

For the Sanctification of the Clergy.

O LORD, Who delightest to effect by grace what the weakness of our nature cannot attain to, illuminate the stewards of Thy mysteries with Thy indwelling purity; that in the work of the ministry their word may go forth as fire, to consume the evil, to melt the stony-hearted, to purify the unclean, to enlighten the ignorant, and to quicken the dead; through.

20. O Almighty GOD, Who by Thy SON JESUS CHRIST didst give to Thy . .

For Deacons.

28. Almighty GOD, Giver of all good things, Who of Thy great goodness . . .

For Priests.

29. Most merciful FATHER, we beseech Thee to send upon Thy servants . . .

For Courage in the Clergy

O GOD of peace and truth, rebuke the spirit of antichrist, lawlessness, and discord, which is ready to break in upon this Church and nation; restrain its abettors, and give grace to all who minister in Thy name (. . .), that, like faithful servants and soldiers of JESUS CHRIST Thy SON, they may stand in the breach, and omit no part of their duty in this day of danger; through.

Lay Workers.

ASSIST, O Merciful Lord, all those who minister before Thee in the choir, and in the sanctuary: that they may enjoy the blessedness of dwelling in this Thine earthly house, and here be always praising Thee, until Thou call them to take their part in the unending worship of Thy saints and angels in heaven.

Church Officers.

GRANT them, O Lord, an uncorrupt life, a truthful heart, an humble spirit: that they may execute their trust with loyalty and devotion, and make much of them that fear the Lord; and so after years of zealous labour in Thine earthly tabernacle they may at the last rest upon Thy holy hill in the heavenly Zion; through.

For Theological Colleges.

O EVERLASTING God, Who art ever adored by the holy angels, yet dost choose men to be the stewards of Thy mysteries; bless, we beseech Thee, the work of the College at . . .; that they who cannot do any good without Thee, may by Thee be won to purity and love, and illuminated with a true knowledge of Thy Word and Sacraments: and so, being made able ministers of the New Testament, may advance Thy glory, and the salvation of Thy elect servants.

Ordination Candidates.

O GOD, Who dost ever hallow and protect Thy Church, raise up therein, through Thy Spirit, good and faithful stewards of the mysteries of CHRIST; that by their ministry and example the christian people may abide under Thy protection, and be guided in the way of truth; through the same.

This Day's Services.

O HEAVENLY FATHER, forasmuch as none can come to receive Thy holy word, except Thou draw them by Thy gracious inspiration, we beseech Thee to pour out Thy HOLY SPIRIT upon those who worship to-day in Thy holy house of prayer (especially . . .); that their hearts may be inclined favourably to receive, steadfastly to retain, and obediently to perform, whatsoever shall be taught them in Thy name; and that they may manifest, in the dedication to Thee of their lives and substance, that thankfulness which they owe to Thee for Thy redeeming love; through.

12. Let Thy merciful ears, O LORD, be open to the prayers . . .

For Prayerfulness.

O GOD, Who callest us to pray to Thee, pardon, we beseech Thee, the imperfections of all our devotions; and grant that they who are specially troubled by wandering thoughts in prayer, may be mercifully strengthened by Thy grace to resist the temptations of the wicked one; and may be enabled so earnestly to contemplate Thy presence, that their worship of Thee upon earth may be a foretaste of the perfect fruition of Thy Godhead, which shall be the joy and strength of Thy worshippers, in Thine everlasting kingdom; through.

For Profaners of the Lord's Day

O GOD, grant that they who, neglecting Thy worship on Thy holy day, give themselves rather to the business or pleasure of the world, may turn to Thee while it is yet time, and rise out of all carnal affections by the power of grace; so that they perish not in everlasting death when the world and its lust shall have passed away, but, being found in Him Who died for us and rose again, may be saved by grace; through the same.

The Holy Eucharist.

O GOD, Who in this wonderful sacrament hast left us a memorial of Thy passion; grant us, we beseech Thee, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Thy Body and Blood, that we may evermore perceive within ourselves the fruit of Thy redemption ; Who livest.

Doctrine.

O GOD, Who hast laid the foundations of Thy Church upon the holy hills, grant that no inroads of error may attack it, nor any commotion of the world disturb it ; but that, firmly grounded on the basis of the Apostles, it may be kept with the aid of their prayers in true loyalty to Thee.

2. Merciful Lord, we beseech Thee . .

For the Holy Discipline of the Church.

O GOD, Who by the ministry of Thy blessed Apostles didst cause Thy holy religion to be acknowledged throughout the world, give grace unto Thy Church devoutly to exercise that holy discipline which from them it has received ; through.

Faithfulness.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, implant within us Thy holy will, that in our hearts we may faithfully retain it, and in our lives may devoutly shew forth the same : that so Thy Church, renouncing the vanities of the world, may be zealous to carry out in deed that truth which in word she confesses ; through.

Growth.

O GOD, restorer and governor of mankind, we beseech Thee to grant that Thy Church may continually be increased by the gathering in of new children to Thee, and perfected by the increasing devotion of those who have been regenerated ; through.

Unity.

O LORD Jesu Christ, Who saidst to Thine Apostles, Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; regard not our sins, but the faith of Thy Church, and grant her that peace and unity which is agreeable to Thy will ; Who livest.

Charity.

O GOD, Who requirest of Thy people a heart full of wisdom and unfeigned charity ; grant us so to preserve the measure of true love, that those among us who dissent from due unity and concord may have no fair ground for hostility against us.

LITANY.

REMEMBER, O LORD, Thy Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church throughout the whole world, and bestow upon it richly the gifts of Thine all-holy Spirit.

Remember especially the Church in this our land, and all the churches connected therewith; remove all that is evil, strengthen all that is good, and supply all the deficiencies thereof.

Remember, O LORD, all christian people, who, though alienated from Thy Church, desire to serve Thee in holy living. Oh, build Thou up Jerusalem, and gather together there the outcasts of Israel!

Remember, O LORD, our holy fathers the bishops throughout all the world, who rightly divide the word of truth.

Remember in the multitude of Thy mercy and Thy compassion all priests and deacons who this day are ministering at Thy holy altar: that Thy priests may live a blameless life, and Thy deacons may preserve their ministry undefiled, and obtain for themselves a good degree.

Remember, O LORD, all those who this day take part in Thy holy mysteries and offer at Thy holy altar: accomplish the desire of each heart, and fulfil every good intention.

Remember, O LORD, all those who join this day in common worship before Thy throne of grace: let none be absent through coldness or carelessness: let all be enabled to do Thee hearty service: multiply our opportunities, and give us grace to use them with unfailing steadfastness and fervent devotion.

Remember, O LORD, the ministers of Thy Church for their labour in word and sacrament, and in the proclamation of Thy glorious Gospel: endow them with wisdom for their high task, with learning for the setting forth of Thy truth, with loving zeal and devotion for Thy glory, and the salvation of souls: with humble self-surrender, lest they themselves be cast away: and both by their lives and their labours do Thou vouchsafe to enrich mankind and advance Thy heavenly kingdom.

Remember, O LORD, Thy covenant of grace, whereby new souls are daily adopted as Thy children, are sealed with the unction of the Spirit, are restored to holiness by the power of absolution, and refreshed and strengthened by the Body and Blood of Thy dear SON; that no human weakness may mar the operations of Thine unfailing loving-kindness.

Remember, O LORD, all those whom Thou art calling hereafter to serve Thee in Thy ministry, that none may spoil or lose his vocation, but that many may go forth as devoted labourers in Thy vineyard.

Remember, O LORD, all those who with heart and hand and voice bear their part in the services of Thy holy place, that they may have grace to serve Thee acceptably with reverence and godly fear.

Remember, O LORD, all those in Thy Church who bear good fruit and do good works, and are mindful of the poor, the widow, the orphan, the stranger, and the destitute.

Vouchsafe to remember all those who in every generation since the world began have been well pleasing unto Thee, patriarchs, prophets, apostles, martyrs, confessors, holy doctors, virgins and matrons, and all the spirits of just men made perfect in the faith of JESUS CHRIST; (especially . . . ;) and, though I am unworthy to commemorate their blessedness, may they, as they stand before Thy dread and fearsome judgement seat, remember in return my unworthiness, that I may find grace and mercy before Thee, O LORD, in time of need.

Remember, O LORD, Thou GOD of the spirits of all flesh, all Thy faithful people, whether remembered or forgotten by me, from righteous Abel unto the present day: grant them refreshment there in Thy kingdom, in the land of the living, in the bliss of paradise, in the bosom of our holy forefathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, whence sorrow and sighing are fled away, where all is overseen and pervaded by the light of Thy countenance.

Through Thine only begotten SON, our LORD GOD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST, with Whom in the unity of the all-holy, blessed, and life-giving SPIRIT Thou art blessed and glorified now, henceforth and for evermore. Amen.

MONDAY.

Whatsoever ye shall ask in My name, that will I do, that the FATHER may be glorified in the SON. If ye shall ask Me anything in My name, that will I do.

S. John xiv. 13, 14.

There is nothing that makes us love a man so much as praying for him; and when you can once do this sincerely for any man, you have fitted your soul for the performance of everything that is kind and civil towards him.

W. LAW, A Serious Call, ch. xxi.

It was not warning that our fathers lacked,
  It is not warning that we lack to-day,
The Voice that cried still cries, "Rise up and act:
  Watch alway,—watch and pray,—watch alway,—
    All men."

Alas, if aught was lacked good will was lacked;
  Alas, good will is what we lack to-day.
O gracious Voice, grant grace that all may act,
  Watch and act,—watch and pray,—watch alway.—
    Amen.

Amen.

OUR FATHER . . .

6. Almighty GOD, we beseech Thee graciously to behold . . .

COLLECTS.

For Communicants.

O LORD, Who blessest those that love Thee, and makest them holy that put their trust in Thee, pour out, we pray Thee, Thy blessing on Thy servants who, together with us, have received Thy holy mysteries (. . .). Pardon all the imperfections of their worship, give them the desire of their hearts, according to Thy will and their own need; and grant that none of them may be rejected from Thy kingdom, but that all, being preserved in the unity of the faith, may persevere in Thy grace, until they enter into Thy glory; through.

Habitual Communicants.

Now He that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness, being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

10. Almighty God, Who alone canst order the unruly wills . . .

Lapsed Communicants.

GRANT, Lord, that Thy people may hearken unto Thee and walk again in Thy ways: that Thou mayest feed them with the finest wheat flour of the Body of Thy SON JESUS CHRIST, and with the cup of their salvation, even His most precious Blood, that therewith they may be satisfied, and endure in Thy love for ever.

CHURCH WORKERS.

GRANT, O LORD, that all whom Thou dost choose to work for Thee may labour in union with Thy holy purposes, and in living unity with Thy dear SON JESUS CHRIST; that by the power of Thy HOLY SPIRIT they may accomplish far more than they ever know, and work not for results, but for the single love of Thee.

GODFEARING.

GRANT, O LORD, unto those that fear Thy name a happiness that shall endure for ever, that by their deeds and by their life they may lay up in store for themselves in heaven a noble harvest of good fruits; through.

FOR THOSE WHO NEED GUIDANCE.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, O Blessed Trinity, that all who need Thy help and guidance may be filled with the knowledge of Thy will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; increasing in divine knowledge, and strengthened with all might according to Thy glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness.

Uninstructed.

HAVE compassion, O Lord, our great High Priest, on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way, that the sacrifice which Thou dost ever offer for sins before the Father, may avail for their enlightenment, their pardon, and their eternal salvation.

For those in doubt as to their Vocation.

GUIDE, O Lord, we beseech Thee, all who have to decide upon their future course of life; and give them grace so to follow the indications of Thy providence, that they may live not only to the salvation of their own souls, but to the advancement of Thy glory, according to the measure of Thy most merciful appointment, and receive Thy blessing in time and in eternity; through.

3. O Lord, we beseech Thee, mercifully to receive the prayers . . .

For the Tempted and Despairing.

O FATHER of glory and God of our Lord Jesus Christ, grant unto those who are tempted and despairing a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Thyself. Enlighten the eyes of their understanding, that they may know the Hope of Thy calling, the rich glory of Thy inheritance in the saints, and the exceeding greatness of Thy power toward all them that believe in the same our risen and triumphant Lord and Head, Thy SON JESUS CHRIST.

FOR THE TEMPTED.

GOOD JESU, Who didst vouchsafe to be tempted as we, to overcome Satan for us and in us; teach the tempted swiftly to hold to Thee; hold them, lest they fall; raise them, if they give way; cheer them, if they despond; make them to hold tighter to Thee; and never let us for an instant let Thee go, until Thou bless us.

9. Almighty GOD, Who shewest to them that be in error . . .

15. LORD, we beseech Thee, grant Thy people grace to withstand . . .

FOR THE DESPONDING.

O GOD of hope, fill Thy despondent children with all joy and peace in believing, that they may abound in hope in the power of the HOLY GHOST.

FOR THOSE IN DOUBT.

O LORD our Light and our Salvation, banish the night of gloom and ignorance, and grant to those in doubt the illumination of truth and of knowledge: that their hope may be firmly set in Thee, and the assaults of malicious foes may be brought to naught. Establish their confidence upon a rock of stone, that, surely grounded in the faith of CHRIST, they may be built up in love to their highest perfection.

FOR THE HAPPY.

O GOD, our true Joy and the giver of all good things, be pleased to grant to those of Thy servants whom Thou hast called to follow Thee in the sunny paths of joy and peace, that they may be filled with the Spirit; singing and making melody in their hearts to Thee, and giving Thee thanks always for all things, in the name of our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

FOR TRAVELLERS BY SEA OR LAND.

O GOD, Who didst call Abraham to leave his home, and didst protect him in all his wanderings; grant to those who now travel by land or sea (especially . . .), a prosperous journey, a quiet time, and a safe arrival at their journey's end. Be to them a shadow in the heat, a refuge in the tempest, a protection in adversity; and grant that, when life's pilgrimage is over, they may arrive at the heavenly country; through.

O LORD, give ear to our prayers, and dispose the way of Thy servant in safety under Thy protection, that, amid all the chances of this our pilgrimage, he may ever be guarded by Thine Almighty aid; through.

Family Life.

The Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another and toward all men, to the end He may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His saints.

For Parents.

O GOD and Father of us all, impress upon all parents a deep sense of their responsibility before Thee for the care and training of the children whom Thou hast entrusted to them; and that they may faithfully discharge their trust, make them learn the right use of justice, discipline, and love from the example of Thine own fatherly care of us Thine unworthy children, O God and Father of us all.

For Young People.

The very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For Children.

O LORD Jesus Christ, we beseech Thee, by the innocence and obedience of Thy holy childhood, and by Thy reverence and love for little children, do Thou guard the children of our land; preserve their innocence, strengthen them when ready to slip, recover the erring, and remove all that may hinder them from being brought up in Thy faith and love; Who livest.

GRANT, O FATHER of all, that Thy holy angels, as they always behold Thy face in heaven, may evermore protect Thy little ones on earth from every danger both of body and soul; through.

UNBAPTIZED.

O FATHER, Who hast called all mankind to receive the adoption of sons through the cleansing waters of Holy Baptism, remove all obstacles to the fulfilment of Thy purpose in every soul whom Thou hast made; that none may be kept back from the font of Thy grace, but that all may come to receive the grace of Thy sacrament, and by the new birth of water and the SPIRIT to enter upon their heavenly inheritance.

UNCONFIRMED.

COME, HOLY GHOST, and tarry not: make speed to finish Thy work in all those whom Thou hast regenerated; let their hearts be opened to receive Thee, that Thou mayest claim them as Thy temple and abide with them for ever, O LORD and giver of life.

For Members of Guilds.

O LORD our God, make all members of Guilds (especially . . .) to be worthy of their calling and to fulfil all the good pleasure of Thy goodness, and the work of faith and power; that Thy name may be glorified in them and they in Thee; through.

For Religious Life.

Men.

O GOD, Who preparest a mansion in heaven for all those who forsake the world, enrich even now their earthly homes with heavenly treasure; unite them with bands of love in the unity of common brotherhood, and obedience to Thy precepts; let the power of Thy free grace be manifested in them by soberness, simplicity, and quietness: that their life may bear out their calling, and their aim may be manifest in their works; through.

Women.

LOOK down, O Lord, on the precious jewels of Thy Church, the virgins whom Thou hast dedicated unto Thyself, that they may be kept in body and soul with a conscience void of all offence; through.

For its fuller Restoration.

O LORD, we beseech Thee, pour out abundantly upon Thy Church the spirit which Thou didst bestow upon Thine Apostles, and which Thou dost continually in all ages give, as Thou willest, unto Thy faithful people; that many may hear Thy voice, may leave possessions, parents, hope of wife and children, and their own wills also, and may take up the cross and follow Thee without delay in holy poverty, obedience, and chastity. And unto those, whether they be men or women, whom Thou hast already called, do Thou give so plentifully of Thy grace, that they may provoke one another to love and to good works, and that by their holy conversation there may be spread in every place the good savour of Thee, O CHRIST our GOD; Who livest.

LITANY.

LORD, have mercy upon us.
CHRIST, have mercy upon us.
LORD, have mercy upon us.

O CHRIST, hear me.
O CHRIST, graciously hear me.

O GOD the FATHER, of heaven,
Have mercy upon us.

O GOD the SON, Redeemer of the world,
Have mercy upon us.

O GOD the HOLY GHOST,
Have mercy upon us.

Holy Trinity, One GOD,
Be gracious to us,
and spare us, O LORD,
and hearken unto my voice as I cry unto Thee.

May it please Thee to bless Thy whole Church, and to increase the number of those who labour in Thy harvest.

May it please Thee to stir up fresh zeal in all Thy faithful people, for the advance of every good word and work.

May it please Thee to grant unto all communicants to be truly reconciled to Thee, and to be in perfect charity with all the world, as they approach the Banquet of Divine Love.

May they, as they go forth from Thy heavenly mysteries, be zealous to praise and glorify Thee, and strive to live after Thy commandments.

By this heavenly medicine, may their hearts be healed of all infirmities, and their wills strengthened against all relapses.

May all who by faith adore Thee here present beneath the sacred veils, hereafter behold Thee face to face, and be glad evermore with the joy of Thy countenance.

May it please Thee to enable those who work for Thee to labour with zeal, with self-sacrifice, and with success, for the salvation of precious souls.

May it please Thee to guide by Thine indwelling SPIRIT, those who are in doubt as to their vocation, and to give them courage to embrace it, when it is made known to them.

May it please Thee to preserve all those who are in special temptation, and keep them true to Thee.

May it please Thee to encourage all drooping hearts; and to turn the hearts of such as are rejoicing to rejoice in Thee.

May it please Thee to guard and direct all travellers, giving Thy holy angels charge concerning them, to keep them in all their ways.

May it please Thee to bless all family life, to direct all parents in their sacred task, and to give to all children a filial fear of Thee, and an ardent love of Thy holy name.

May it please Thee to draw to the waters of regeneration those who as yet are unbaptized, and to perfect in all hearts the work of Thy baptismal grace by the unction and seal of Thy HOLY SPIRIT.

May it please Thee to prosper with Thy blessing all schools and orphanages, and to make them fruitful nurseries of good and holy souls.

May it please Thee to endue all the members of religious communities with entire devotion, unwearied zeal, and perfect charity; increase their number, and strengthen Thou their hands.

May it please Thee to bless the work of all guilds and societies, which exist for Thy glory and the good of souls.

O Merciful FATHER, hear us for Thy dear SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST'S sake.

O blessed LORD JESUS CHRIST, draw us that we may run after Thee.

O GOD the HOLY GHOST, one with the FATHER and the SON, purify, quicken, and help us. Amen.

✢ The grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the love of GOD, and the fellowship of the HOLY GHOST, be with us all evermore. Amen.

TUESDAY.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me.

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.

S. John xiv. 1, 27.

There is no principle of the heart that is more acceptable to God, than an universal fervent love to all mankind, wishing and praying for their happiness; because there is no principle of the heart that makes us more like God, Who is love and goodness itself, and created all beings for their enjoyment of happiness.

W. Law, A Serious Call, ch. xx.

He prayeth best, who loveth best
All things both great and small;
For the dear God Who loveth us,
He made and loveth all.

LET Thy mercy, O God, extend to the whole race of mankind. Bring all nations to the knowledge and belief of Thy true religion (. . .); and to those who profess it already, give Thy heavenly grace, that they may strive to adorn their holy profession by a suitable life and conversation. Be favourable and gracious to this land. Endue all orders and degrees of men amongst us, and especially our governours in Church and state, with those graces and virtues, which may enable them to discharge their several trusts in such a manner, as will be most for Thine honour and glory, and for the peace and prosperity of this Church and nation.

Our Father . . . 7. Almighty and . . .

COLLECTS.

For the Realm

BLESS, we beseech Thee, merciful LORD, our country and all its colonies and dependencies. Give Thine abundant grace to our King and to all who bear office throughout the realm, that in all things we may be governed righteously and in Thy fear; and grant to us not only such outward prosperity as is according to Thy will, but above all things, such virtue and true religion that Thy holy name may be ever glorified in the midst of us; through.

LORD, bless this kingdom, that religion and virtue may season all sorts of men:
that there may be peace within the gates,
and plenty within the palaces of it.
In peace I beseech Thee so to preserve it that it corrupt not:
in war so defend it that it suffer not:
in plenty so order it that it riot not:
in want so pacify and moderate it that it may patiently and peaceably seek Thee,
the only full supply both of men and states.
That so it may continue a place and a people to do Thee service to the end of time.

In time of Trouble or Humiliation.

WE beseech Thee, Almighty God, of Thy manifold and great mercy to turn away the heavy wrath of Thy displeasure from this Thy people and Thy holy habitation, for we have sinned against Thee. Alleluia.

For Rulers.

O GOD of infinite mercy, remember all Sovereign Rulers; preserve their persons in health and honour; their crowns in wealth and dignity; their kingdoms in peace and plenty; the Churches under their protection in piety and knowledge, and a strict and holy religion: keep them perpetually in Thy fear and favour, and crown them with glory and immortality.

O GOD, Who hast taught us to make supplications unto Thee for kings and all who are in authority, look mercifully upon all such for whom we are bound to pray, and grant that under their governance we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty; through.

For the King.

O GOD of all kingdoms, Who art guardian especially of every christian realm, grant to Thy servant George our King to triumph over every foe, that as he hath been consecrated to rule by Thy divine providence, so by Thy protection he may long reign in supremacy and peace: through.

For Representative Bodies of Government.

O GOD, Who gavest Thy Holy Spirit to the elders of Thy people Israel, give wisdom to all assemblies of men unto whom Thou hast entrusted the government of Thy servants, especially to the parliaments of our realm, the ministers of the crown, and the convocations and synods of the Church: that they may faithfully execute what Thy divine providence has ordained for the good of the world and the extension of Thy kingdom.

The Army and Navy.

O LORD of Hosts, bless our soldiers and sailors; keep them pure and loyal amid all their temptations; and grant that all their operations may tend to peace on earth: that war being done away, they may fight only in their christian conflict against sin, the world, and the devil, and triumph therein by Thy victorious might, O Lord, Thou God of Hosts.

For Sailors

27. O Eternal Lord God, Who alone spreadest out the heavens . . .

Administration of Justice.

O JUDGE of all, let Thine eternal justice be meted out in every court of law: cause quarrelling to cease and make all men reverence law, and live in harmony and obedience, as those who shall one day stand before Thine awful judgment seat: may we find mercy then of Thee, O righteous Judge and patient.

For Commerce.

O ALMIGHTY God, enlighten all merchants and tradesmen (. . .) with the gift of the Holy Spirit, that they may consider not what the world would sanction, but what Thy law demands. Prosper with Thy blessing all who are thus striving to regulate their dealings by the rule of truth and love; and if difficulty compass them in the world, quicken Thou within them such a desire of laying up treasure in heaven, as may cause them with an entire satisfaction to accept Thy perfect will, teaching them so to use earthly things, that they may become partakers of the true riches which cannot fail; through.

For Agriculture.

HAVE mercy, O Lord, upon all those who labour in the cultivation of the earth, and grant that by the power of Thy grace their own souls may be made fruitful unto all good works; through.

Manufacture and Handicraft.

O BLESSED Saviour, Who wast pleased Thyself to be reckoned among the craftsmen, bless all those who labour with their hands, that their work may be done for Thy honour, and rewarded with Thy approval.

Clerks.

O MASTER, Who hast bid all men occupy till Thou come to take account with Thy servants, make all who are in positions of worldly trust to be faithful in the execution of them, that in the end when they render up their account unto Thee, they may enter into the joy of Thee their Lord; Who.

For Employers and Employed.

O GOD, Who art the Father of all mankind, we beseech Thee to give us a fuller realization of our brotherhood, man with man, in Thee; and to raise up among us a deeper sense of truth and equity in commercial dealings one with another; for the sake.

GIVE grace, O Lord, to servants that they may do their work heartily as unto Thee and not unto men: to masters that they may do what is just and equal, as having themselves a Master in heaven: to all that they may be united in the common service of the Lord Christ, and receive of Thee the reward of the inheritance; through the same.

For the Rich.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who for our sake didst become poor, we pray Thee to protect them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in Thee, the living God, Who givest us richly all things to enjoy. Grant them grace so to use their wealth, that they may do good, and be rich in good works, ready to distribute, and willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

For the Poor.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who hast pronounced a blessing upon the poor, grant that none may forfeit it nor miss Thy heavenly kingdom; but reward them both here and hereafter with heavenly riches which never fail.

For our Homes.

O GOD, to Whom belongeth all power and might: we pray Thee to raise our villages from the degradation of sin; to cleanse our towns from all impurity, drunkenness, and gambling. Instil into those who own land or houses an earnest desire to banish therefrom all occasions of sin and of vice, that the weak may be protected, the struggling assisted, the godly encouraged, and the faithful increased; through.

Education.

DIRECT, O Lord, the work of Education, and guide all those to whom Thou hast entrusted it, that in their various stations they may do Thee hearty service, and, their task completed, they may render up their account with joy; through.

For our Universities.

PRESERVE our Universities, O Lord, as the bulwarks of Thy Church, and root out from them whatever is contrary to faith and morals; but chiefly revive in them such a spirit of devotion, that they may send forth many to the work of Thy Church at home and abroad, loving Thee with a pure love, and resolved to offer themselves a sacrifice to Thee in winning others to Thy love; through.

For Schools.

O LORD Jesus Christ, Child of Bethlehem, everlasting God, bless, we beseech Thee, the boys and girls of . . . schools, to the end that they may be truthful, pure, obedient, and ready to do their duty in that state of life to which it shall please Thee to call them. Give also to those whom Thou hast set over them grace so to bring them up for Thee, that teachers and scholars may meet with joy in the day of Thy appearing: Who livest.

Architects, Painters and Sculptors.

O THOU Who art altogether lovely and fairest among the sons of men, reveal Thy beauty to all who are engaged in works of art, and natural representation; and sanctify the work of their calling, so that Thou Thyself mayest be revealed in them, and they may wake up hereafter in Thy likeness.

Musicians and Actors.

O HOLY Ghost, distributor of all good gifts, Who knowest the dangers attendant upon each, protect all those whom Thou hast endowed with rich artistic talents; that with purity, sobriety, and diligence, they may use what Thou hast given them so as to enrich the world and glorify Thee, the Giver.

Literature and Science.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who in divers measures hast inspired men to study and record the revelations of Thy truth, direct the labours of scientists, authors, and journalists towards the advancement of truth, the furtherance of righteousness, and the deepening of holiness among all whom they influence; through.

LITANY.

O THOU Hope of all the ends of the earth,
Remember Thy whole creation for good,
Visit the world in Thy compassion.

O Thou preserver of men, O loving LORD,
Remember all our race,
And have mercy upon all.

O King of all nations, throughout the world,
Strengthen all the states of the inhabited world, as being Thine appointment, though an ordinance of man.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.
Make wars to cease in all the world.

O Thou Expectation and hope of the isles, Save this island,
and every country wherein we dwell,
from all affliction, peril, and necessity.

O King of kings and LORD of lords, Remember all rulers to whom Thou hast given authority in the earth.
Remember specially our King and his ministers,
Work with them ever more and more.
Speak good things unto their hearts,
on behalf of Thy Church, and all Thy people.

O Thou by Whom are ordained the powers that be,
Grant to those who are chief in court and council, to be chief also in virtue and in Thy holy fear.
Grant to the parliament and convocations Thy holy wisdom.
To our great men, to do nothing against the truth, but all things for the truth.
To the courts of law, Thy judgments and righteousness, to judge in all things concerning all without preference and without partiality.

O LORD GOD of hosts,
Give a prosperous course and strength to all the Christian army, against the enemies of our most holy Faith.

O GOD of knowledge,
Remember all who are in Universities,
in Inns of Court, in Medical Schools, in Schools in town or country,
all students of whatever kind,
all in apprenticeships.

O GOD, the FATHER of all mankind,
Grant to our population to be subject unto the higher powers, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.
Grant to farmers and graziers good seasons, to the fleet and fishermen fair weather, to merchants and tradesmen not to over-reach one another.

to capitalists, mechanics, and labourers to pursue their business lawfully.

Remember, O GOD, those who are in factories, in mines, in occupations of danger and trial of whatever kind.

Voyage with the voyagers,
Travel with the travellers.

O GOD, not of us only but also of our seed, Bless our children among us, that they may advance in wisdom and in stature, and in favour with Thee and with men.

Remember, O LORD our GOD, all spirits and all flesh whom we have remembered, and those whom we have not; for JESUS CHRIST'S sake. Amen.

WEDNESDAY.

The harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the LORD of the harvest, that He send forth labourers into His harvest

S. Luke x. 2.

Desire of Me, and I shall give Thee the heathen for Thine inheritance: and the utmost parts of the earth for Thy possession.

Psalm ii. 8.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

Psalm cxxii. 6.

A Christian who is not really in heart and will a missionary is not a Christian at all. Missionary effort is not a speciality of a few Christians, though, like every other part of Christian life, it has its special organs. It is an essential, never to be forgotten, part of all true Christian living, and thinking, and praying. . . . Come, then, O breath of the Divine SPIRIT, and breathe upon the dead bones of the Christian Churches that forget that they are evangelists of the nations, that they may live and stand upon their feet, an exceeding great army, an army with banners.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who art Lord both of the living and of the dead, and pitiest all those whom Thou dost foreknow to be Thine by faith and works; we humbly entreat Thee, that they in whose behalf we have set ourselves to pray, both those whom the world still holdeth in the flesh, and those already delivered from the body, whom the world to come hath received, may by Thy goodness and mercy be counted worthy to obtain pardon of their sins and everlasting happiness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father . . .

For the Increase of Clergy.

ALMIGHTY God, look mercifully upon the world redeemed by the blood of Thy dear Son: and send forth many more to do the work of the ministry, that perishing souls may be rescued, and Thy glorious triumph may be hastened by the perfecting of Thine elect; through.

Increase of Lay Workers.

O BLESSED Jesus, Lord of the harvest, we pray Thee send forth labourers into Thy harvest, and by Thy Holy Spirit stir the hearts of many, that they may be ready to spend and be spent in Thy service; and, if it please Thee, so to lose their life in this world, that they may gather fruit unto life eternal, O Lord, Thou lover of souls.

18. Stir up, we beseech Thee, O Lord . . .

For Missionary Zeal in Christians.

O LORD our Saviour, Who hast warned us that Thou wilt require much of those to whom much is given; Grant that we, whose lot Thou hast cast in so goodly a heritage, may strive together the more abundantly by prayer, by almsgiving, and by every other appointed means, to extend to others what we so richly enjoy; and as we have entered into the labours of other men, so to labour that, in their turn, other men may enter into ours, to the fulfilling of Thy holy will, and our everlasting salvation.

Or,

LORD, Who didst bid Thy seraph purge the prophet's lips with fire from off the altar, that so he might be free to preach Thy word unto the people, whether they would hear or whether they would forbear; give Thy priests and people within the Catholic Church pure and wise hearts, that so they may desire to go whither Thou dost send them, and to do that which Thou dost will, in the power of Him through Whom we can do all things, even Thy blessed SON JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

HOME MISSIONS.

O EVER-BLESSED SAVIOUR and Redeemer JESUS, the bright and morning star, Who alone canst give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death: shine with Thy bright radiance upon all those in whose hearts Thou hast not yet arisen; dispel the clouds of darkness with the brightness of Thy presence; let the shadows of earth flee away, and do Thou appear with healing in Thy wings. Enlighten our eyes that we sleep not in the death of sin, but arise and shine with the light of Thy divine love: O ever-blessed SAVIOUR and Redeemer JESUS.

PAROCHIAL MISSIONS.

O GOD the FATHER of heaven, have mercy upon us miserable sinners, and bless all the work of parochial missions. Seek and save the lost; convert the sinful; teach the ignorant; help the weak; strengthen the godly; and look with pity upon us all.

FOR THE JEWS.

O GOD, the GOD of Abraham, look upon Thine everlasting covenant, and cause the captivity of Judah and Israel to return. They are Thy people, O be Thou their SAVIOUR; that all who love Jerusalem and mourn for her may rejoice with her; for JESUS CHRIST'S sake, their SAVIOUR and ours.

FOR CATECHUMENS.

(Grown.)

ALMIGHTY everlasting GOD, Who dost ever enrich Thy Church with new offspring; Grant to all catechumens such increase in understanding and faith, that they may be born again in Holy Baptism, and become Thy children by adoption; through.

(Children.)

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty GOD, that all who are dedicated to Thee in Holy Baptism may have power and strength to have victory and to triumph against the devil, the world, and the flesh; that so, being endued with heavenly virtues, they may through Thy mercy be everlastingly rewarded.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES.

GRANT, we beseech Thee, Almighty GOD, that the radiance of Thy brightness may shine forth upon them; that the beams of Thy light, by the inspiration of Thy HOLY SPIRIT, may confirm their hearts and renew them by Thy grace.

HOME REUNION.

O GOD, the FATHER of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, our only SAVIOUR, the Prince of Peace: give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly union and concord; that as there is but one body and one spirit, and one hope of our calling, one LORD, one faith, one baptism, one GOD and FATHER of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee ; through.

17. LORD, we beseech Thee to keep Thy household the Church . . .

11. Grant, O LORD, we beseech Thee, that the course of this world . . .

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

O GOD, Who by Thy SON JESUS CHRIST, didst charge Thine apostles to preach the gospel to every creature, prosper, we pray Thee, all missions of the Church (especially . . .). Send forth labourers into Thy vineyard, and bestow upon them all things needful for their work. Grant them wisdom in difficulties, help in trouble, the sense of Thy presence in loneliness, and, if it be Thy will, visible success after labour, that Thy holy name may be glorified ; through.

MISSIONARY AGENTS.

This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment ; that ye may make proof of things that are excellent : that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of CHRIST ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by JESUS CHRIST, unto the glory and praise of GOD.

For the Heathen.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who hast made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and didst send Thy blessed Son to preach peace to them that are far off, and to them that are nigh; grant that all the people who sit in darkness and the shadow of death may feel after Thee and find Thee; and hasten, O Lord, the fulfilment of Thy promise to pour out Thy Spirit upon all flesh; through.

O GOD of all the nations of the earth, remember the multitudes of the heathen, who, though created in Thine image, are perishing in darkness and ignorance, and grant that by the prayers and labours of Thy holy Church they may be delivered from all superstitions and unbelief, and brought to worship Thee, the One True God, through Him Whom Thou hast sent to be our salvation, Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

For a Special Mission.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, we commend to Thy Fatherly care all whom Thou hast called to take part in the work for which we are specially desired to pray. Watch over them, we beseech Thee, for good; defend them from all dangers both of body and soul; let Thy HOLY SPIRIT rule their hearts; give Thine angels charge concerning them; and prosper their work to the glory of Thy holy name; through.

ISOLATED AND UNCARED FOR.

O JESU, SAVIOUR of the world, have pity on those who know Thee not, on those who have forgotten Thee, and on those who are far from the Church of their fathers in a strange land. Visit them with Thy salvation; hasten, we pray Thee, Thy kingdom; that the earth may be filled with the knowledge of Thy glory, as the waters cover the sea. And may these our prayers be acceptable in Thy sight, O LORD our strength and our Redeemer.

PERSECUTED.

GRANT, O LORD, to Thy persecuted servants, that their conversation may be as it becometh the gospel of CHRIST; that they may stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; that in nothing terrified by their adversaries they may be bold in the behalf of CHRIST, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake; Who liveth.

FOR OUR COUNTRYMEN ABROAD.

KEEP, we beseech Thee, O LORD, our brethren who are dwelling in foreign lands; protect them from the dangers which surround them, and supply them with the means of grace. Make them steadfast in Thy ways, pure and holy in their lives. Preserve them from the sin of offending Thy little ones which believe in Thee, and from causing Thy word to be blasphemed among the heathen; grant that they may shine as lights in the world, and adorn the doctrine of GOD our SAVIOUR in all things.

5. We beseech Thee, Almighty GOD, mercifully to look . . .

FOR A NATIVE MINISTRY.

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who dost choose whom Thou wilt to minister in Thy name, raise up, we pray Thee, a devout native christian ministry to serve before Thee, to the glory of Thy holy name, the increase of Thy kingdom, and the salvation of many souls; Who livest.

THE CONSUMMATION OF THE END.

O GOD of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favourably on Thy whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; and by the tranquil operation of Thy perpetual providence carry out the work of man's salvation: and let the whole world feel and see that things which were cast down are being raised up: that those which had grown old are being made new; and that all things are returning to perfection, through Him from Whom they took their origin, even our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

O LORD, make bare Thy holy arm in the eyes of all the nations, that all the ends of the world may see Thy salvation; show forth Thy righteousness openly in the sight of the heathen, that the kingdom of Thy CHRIST may be established over all mankind; hasten the coming of the end when He shall deliver up the kingdom unto Thee, and having put down all rule, and authority, and power, and put all things under His feet, He Himself shall be subject unto Thee, and with Thee in the unity of the HOLY GHOST, Three persons in one GOD, shall be our all in all.

8. O Merciful GOD, Who hast made all men, and hatest . . .

32. Almighty GOD, with Whom do live . . .

LITANY.

LORD, I pray for the extension of Thy kingdom:

That Thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy saving health among all nations.

I pray for the peace which is from above:

That they that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death may be guided into the way of peace.

For all sinners, both careless and wilful:

That they who are taken captive by the devil may recover themselves out of his snare.

I pray for Thy ancient people Israel:

Wilt Thou not arise
and have mercy upon Zion?
For it is time that Thou have mercy upon her,
Yea, the time is come.

For Christians who are Christians only in name:

LORD, why hast Thou made them to err from Thy ways, and hardened their heart from Thy fear?
Return for Thy servants' sake,
for they are Thine.

I pray for all aggressive Mission work:

Oh that Thou wouldest rend the heavens,
that Thou wouldest come down,
to make Thy name known to Thine adversaries, that all people may tremble at Thy presence.

For more workers, both clergy and laity:

Look with compassion upon the multitudes that are scattered abroad, and upon the sheep that have no shepherd.
Gather them out of all countries and bring them into Thy fold, and set up shepherds over them which shall feed them;
that they may be fruitful and increase,
and be no more lacking.

I pray for more Mission zeal among Christians;

Give us the heart to desire and pray for all men,
that they may be saved,
and to be eager ourselves to spend and be spent in Thy service.

I pray especially for the conversion of the heathen:

Look down, O LORD, from Thy sanctuary,
From Thy heaven behold the whole earth:
hear Thou the mourning of such as are in captivity, deliver the children appointed unto death,

that the heathen may fear Thy name, O LORD,
and all the kingdoms of the earth Thy majesty.

I pray for all new converts:

That they may continue in the faith, grounded and settled,
and not be moved away from the hope of the gospel.

For all hearers of Thy word:

O LORD GOD of our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of their heart, and prepare their heart unto Thee.

For the removal of all obstacles:

That a door may be opened for the preaching of the gospel.

I pray for the unity of Christendom:

That all may walk worthily of their christian vocation, endeavouring to keep the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace and loving forbearance.

Finally to Thee, O GOD of sure mercies,
I pray for the consummation of salvation
according to Thy eternal purpose
in CHRIST JESUS our LORD,

I pray Thee to accomplish speedily
the mystery of the good pleasure of Thy will.
Come quickly, and gather together in one all things in CHRIST.
Strengthen the weak hands, confirm the feeble knees :
let the eyes of the blind be opened,
and the ears of the deaf unstopped ;
let waters of life break out in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert ;
cast up the highway there,
the way called "The way of holiness," that the ransomed of the LORD may return and come to Zion with songs of gladness and everlasting joy.

THURSDAY.

And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand. So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

Exodus xvii. 9-11

Pray for my soul, more things are wrought by prayer
Than this world dreams of. Wherefore let thy voice Rise like a fountain for me day and night.
For what are men better than sheep or goats
That nourish a blind life within the brain,
If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer
Both for themselves and those who call them friend?
For so the whole round earth is every way
Bound by gold chains about the feet of God.

TENNYSON, Passing of Arthur

Thrice blest whose lives are faithful prayers,
  Whose loves in higher love endure;
  What souls possess themselves so pure,
Or is there blessedness like theirs?

General.

BLESS, I beseech Thee, all my relations, all my friends, and neighbours; and especially let the hand of Thy blessing rest upon those most dear to me (. . .). Bless, O LORD, I earnestly pray Thee, my (husband, or wife, or parent, or children, &c., &c.), all those who are in any wise committed to my care, and all who remember me in their prayers, or desire to be remembered in mine (. . .); grant them health of soul and body; preserve them from sin and error; make them Thy faithful servants; and defend them evermore with Thy heavenly grace; through.

OUR FATHER . . .

COLLECTS.

For my Parents (living).

ALMIGHTY God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom the whole family in heaven and in earth is named; I give Thee most humble thanks for that Thou didst of Thy divine providence vouchsafe to let me be born of Christian parents, by whose care I was first brought into Thy holy baptism, and afterwards brought up in Thy holy religion. I beseech Thee, O blessed God, Who art the rewarder of every good work, to recompense them their full reward, even out of the riches of Thy bounty and goodness. Give them peace and plenty; defend them from all dangers, both of body and soul: keep them in the steadfastness of Thy faith and in the obedience of Thy holy commandments; that so having Thee their merciful and gentle Father, after many days here in this life, they may at last be brought unto life everlasting.

For my Parents (departed).

O LORD, Who hast commanded us to honour our parents, have mercy on the souls of my father and mother: vouchsafe them the forgiveness of their sins, and grant that we may be united together in the joy of the light of life everlasting; through.

Brothers and Sisters.

O GOD, Who by the grace of the Holy Spirit hast spread abroad the gifts of love in the hearts of Thy faithful people; grant unto Thy servants, my brothers and sisters, for whom I entreat Thy favour, health of soul and body, that they may love Thee with their whole strength, and may accomplish in all love that which is well-pleasing unto Thee; through.

For my Wife.

O GOD, Who hast ordained holy marriage as a great mystery, bless her whom Thou hast ordained to be my partner in that holy estate; let nothing separate us from each other's love, nor, above all, from Thine, both here and hereafter; through.

For my Husband.

GRANT, O Lord, that nothing upon my part may hinder the good desires which Thou hast put into my husband's heart, but enable me rather to soothe him in perplexity, to cheer him in difficulty, to refresh him in weariness, and, as far as may be, to advise him in doubt; that my fellowship may be no impediment to the development within him of every Christian grace, but our united prayers may ascend acceptably before Thee; through.

For my Children.

O HEAVENLY Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, the Son of Thy love, direct and bless all my endeavours for the good of my children; and grant that I may not become their enemy by any evil example, or by the neglect of any part of my duty to them. Grant them, I beseech Thee, healthful bodies, and imprint on their souls in the days of their youth a deep sense of the love and fear that is due to Thee, their Creator. Preserve them from the temptations of an evil world, and endue them with sound principles of virtue, religion, and holiness: and be Thou, O God, their Father and their portion in this world and in the world to come.

Or,

BLESS my children with healthful bodies, with good understandings, with the graces and gifts of Thy Spirit, with sweet dispositions and holy habits; and sanctify them throughout in their bodies, and souls, and spirits, and keep them unblameable to the coming of the Lord Jesus.

Or,

O GOD, Who hast been pleased to commit to my charge some of Thine own children, bought with the blood of Thy dear Son; teach me ever to bear in mind how great a treasure is given to my care: lead them in the way of salvation, and knit us together in Thy love, Who art GOD for ever and world without end.

GODCHILDREN.

MERCIFUL FATHER, regard with Thy tender love and favour Thy children . . . for whom I am specially bound to pray. Grant that, as they have been admitted by baptism into the fellowship of Thy Church, so they may evermore grow in the grace and knowledge of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. Preserve them from temptations (especially . . .), teach them Thy truth; and grant that with earnest devotion they may give their hearts to Thee; through.

23. We yield Thee hearty thanks, most merciful FATHER that it hath . . .

FOR RELATIONS AND FRIENDS.

MERCIFUL FATHER, I beseech Thee to bestow Thy special blessing upon all my kinsfolk and friends (. . .). Prosper them, if it please Thee, in their worldly affairs; support and guide them in all trials and difficulties; advance them daily in Thy faith and love, and bring them hereafter to Thy heavenly joys; through.

For Friends.

BE pleased, O Lord, to remember my friends, all that have prayed for me, and all that have done me good (especially . . .). Do Thou good to them, and return all their kindness double into their own bosom, rewarding them with blessings, and sanctifying them with Thy graces, and bringing them to glory.

Living,

O GOD the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of Whom every family in heaven and earth is named, grant unto my friends (especially . . .) that, according to the riches of Thy glory, they may be strengthened with might by Thy Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in their hearts by faith ; that they, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all Saints what is the breadth and length and depth and height, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that they be filled with all the fulness of God.

One lying dead.

O LORD, we most meekly beseech Thee for this Thy servant, that receiving of Thee the absolution from all his sins which he hath committed in this world, he may escape the gates of hell and the pains of eternal darkness: that he may for ever dwell with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, in the region of light and Thy blessed presence, where there is neither weeping nor heaviness: and that when the dreadful day of the general judgment shall come, he may rise again with the just and receive this body, which now must lie buried in the earth, to be joined with his soul, and be made pure and incorruptible for ever after in Thy glorious kingdom; for the merits of Thy dear SON our SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST.

FOR OUR ENEMIES.

O LORD, I beseech Thee forgive mine enemies all their sins against Thee, and give me that measure of Thy grace, that for their hatred I may love them; for their cursing I may bless them; for their injury I may do them good; for their persecution I may pray for them. LORD, I pray for them: forgive them, for they know not what they do.

SPIRITUAL BENEFACTORS.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Who art the Giver of all good things, I praise Thee for Thy blessings vouchsafed to me by the hands of Thy servants (. . .). Perfect Thy work in their hearts according to the fulness of Thy love; and grant that I, keeping the grace which I have received through their instru-mentality, may give them cause to rejoice with me in its growth ; and that, by the manifold fruit of their ministrations, the thanksgivings of many may abound for them in the day of reward ; through.

For a Priest.

The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble,
The Name of the GOD of Jacob defend thee,
Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Sion :
Remember all thy offerings,
And accept thy burnt sacrifice ;
Grant thee thy heart's desire,
And fulfil all thy mind.

TEMPORAL BENEFACTORS.

O GOD, forasmuch as earthly love is but the image of Thine own eternal charity, be gracious unto those who have benefited me in various ways (especially . . .). Let the good things of earth which I have acquired through their industry, care, wisdom, counsel, rise up before Thee as a memorial ; and do Thou reward them with the abundant riches of Thy grace, that the love which is begun on earth may be perfected in the glory of Thine own revelation, from Whom all true love comes, and in Whom it shall be consummated ; through.

For Servants.

O LORD, bless our servants and make them Thine. Give them grace to serve Thee first, and then to serve us with faithfulness and diligence, not pleasing us only, but as servants of CHRIST doing Thy will from the heart, and looking for their recompense in heaven.

For the Bishop.

O GOD, the Pastor and Ruler of Thy faithful servants, look down in mercy on Thy servant N. our Bishop, to whom Thou hast given charge over this diocese, and all other Bishops for whom we specially desire to pray (. . .). Do Thou evermore guide, defend, comfort, sanctify and save them; and grant them by Thy grace so to advance in word and good example, that they may, with the flocks committed to them, attain to everlasting life; through.

For the Cathedral and Diocese

BLESSED SAVIOUR, Who feddest the hungry of old in companies upon the green grass, supply every need of Thy faithful company in this diocese: unite us in heavenly concord round the throne of our Bishop, with his company of priests and deacons; that in joyful and hearty co-operation we may advance Thy kingdom by all that is done in Thy name among us.

Parochial Work.

O LORD Jesus, our Good Shepherd, guard and protect the many sheep-folds of Thy flock. Avert the evil wolf from without, and the hireling pastor from within; that Thy sheep may heed no voice but Thine, but following Thee whithersoever Thou callest them, may be gathered into the one fold under Thee, the One Shepherd Who once layedst down Thy life for the sheep, but now livest and reignest, God for evermore.

For Churches.

O GOD, Who dwellest not in temples made with hands, but yet dost not disdain the earthly habitations which Thou hast taught us to dedicate to Thee; let the glory of Thy presence rest upon them, that we may both meet Thee there, and hear Thee speaking from Thy mercy seat; in the joy of Thy fellowship may we offer willingly of our substance, that Thy house may be exceeding magnifical, and worship Thee there in the beauty of holiness with whole burnt offerings of obedience and devotion.

For the Parish.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who dost govern all things in heaven and earth, mercifully hear the supplications of us Thy servants, and grant unto this parish [and

. . .] all things that are needful for its spiritual welfare:

Schools wherein to bring up the young in Thy faith and fear,
Ministers to labour in this portion of Thy vineyard,
A church restored to the beauty of holiness.

Strengthen and increase the faithful: visit and relieve the sick: turn and soften the wicked: rouse the careless: recover the fallen: restore the penitent: remove all hindrances to the advancement of Thy truth: bring us all to be of one heart and mind within the fold of Thy holy Church, to the honour and glory of Thy holy name: through.

For Church Workers.

O LORD, without Whom our labour is but lost, and with Whom Thy little ones go forth as the mighty, be present to bless all the works in this parish (and . . .) which are undertaken according to Thy will (. . .); and grant to Thy labourers a pure intention, patient faith, sufficient success upon earth, and the bliss of serving Thee in heaven; through.

District Visitors.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, look mercifully upon Thy servants who visit the poor; that guarded by Thy protection, and kept by Thy power, they may carry on their work for Thee with joy for many years to come; through.

For the Choir.

O EVERLASTING Jesus, Who art ever adored by the angels, but dost vouchsafe to receive the praises of men; hear our prayers, we beseech Thee, on behalf of the men and boys of our choir (. . .); give them purity of life, sincerity of heart, and true reverence; that what they sing with their lips may be acceptable to Thee, and tend to the honour and glory of Thy name; Who with.

LITANY.

O THOU Hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea ;

O Thou on Whom our fathers hoped, and Thou didst deliver them ;

In Whom they put their trust, and were not confounded ;

Be Thou the hope of all who are dear to me, and their portion in the land of the living.

Thou Who wouldest have every man provide for his own house, and Who hatest the unnatural, Remember, LORD, my kinsmen according to the flesh ; grant me to speak peace concerning them, and to seek their good.

Thou Who willest us to make return to our benefactors,

Remember, LORD, for good, all from whom I have received good ;

Preserve them and keep them alive, that they may be blessed upon earth,

And deliver them not over unto the will of their enemies.

Thou Who hast accounted the man who neglects his own house as worse than an infidel,

Remember in Thy good pleasure all those in my household. Peace be to my house; the SON of peace rest upon all in it.

Thou Who wouldest that our righteousness should exceed the righteousness of sinners, Grant me, LORD, to love those who love me, my own friends, and my father's friends, and never to forsake my friends' children.

Thou Who wouldest that we should overcome evil with good, and pray for those who persecute us,
Have pity on mine enemies, LORD, as on myself; and bring them together with me to Thy heavenly kingdom.

Thou Who grantest the prayers of Thy servants one for another,
Remember, LORD, for good, and pity all those who remember me in their prayers, all those whom I have promised to remember in mine.

Thou Who acceptest a willing mind in every good work,
Remember, LORD, as if they prayed to Thee, those who for any good reason have no leisure for prayer.

O Thou wholesome defence of Thine anointed, Think upon Thy congregation whom Thou hast purchased and redeemed of old, that the multitude of believers may be of one heart and one soul.

O Thou LORD of the harvest,
Set in order the things that are wanting; strengthen the things which remain that are like to die, and send forth labourers into Thy vineyard.

O Thou portion of all Thy faithful worshippers,
Grant to the clergy rightly to divide the word of truth, to the laity to reverence them that watch for their souls.

I commend to Thee
those who have a claim on me,
my kindred and my neighbours,
my country and all Christendom.

I commend to Thee, LORD, our impulses and our startings, our intentions and our attempts, our going out and our coming in, our sitting down and our rising up, from this time forth for evermore. Amen.

FRIDAY.

And this is the boldness which we have toward Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us: and if we know that He heareth us whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of Him. If any man see his brother sinning a sin not unto death, he shall ask, and GOD will give him life for them that sin not unto death.

1 S John v 14-16.

The privilege of intercession is a trust committed to all Christians who have a clear conscience, and are in full communion with the Church.

By words and works we can but teach or influence a few; by our prayers we may benefit the whole world, and every individual of it, high and low, friend, stranger, and enemy. Is it not fearful then to look back on our past lives even in this one respect?

How can we answer to ourselves for the souls who have, in our time, lived and died in sin . . . or those again who have died with but doubtful signs of faith, the death-bed penitent, the worldly, the double-minded, the ambitious, the unruly, the trifling, the self-willed, seeing that, for what we know, we were ordained to influence or reverse their present destiny, and have not done it?

General.

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, we beseech Thee, by the power of Thy love even for the outcast sinners, by Thy strong pity for those who put Thee to an open shame; have mercy on all who have been unfaithful to Thee, and sold themselves to sin (especially . . .), and draw them back from the depths of shame into which they have fallen. Hear us, O SAVIOUR, Who with.

22. O LORD, we beseech Thee, mercifully hear our prayers . . .

OUR FATHER . . .

COLLECTS.

For Wilful Sinners.

O HOLY Ghost, Who reprovest the world of sin and of righteousness and of judgment, shoot suddenly with a swift arrow and penetrate many hearts which are hardened in wilful sin; that they being wounded with a sharp thrust of contrition may no longer refuse to submit themselves to Thee in perfect penitence.

Impenitent.

O LORD God, Who shewest anger only with a view to mercy, and Who threatenest in order to spare; stretch forth Thy hand to the fallen, and in Thy manifold pity give help to the struggling: that those whom Thou hast redeemed may be kept by Thine aid in the glorious hope of life ever lasting; through.

For the Lapsed.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who didst have mercy upon the race of man after the forfeiture of our original righteousness; have mercy, according to the fulness of Thy long-suffering, upon those who, having been once renewed by Thy compassion, are yet again fallen by their own frailty. Let Thy Spirit strive within them, and the remembrance of His former inspirations excite in them such hatred of their sin, and such vengeance against those earthly lusts by which they have been carried captive, that they may no longer hesitate to obey Thy divine call, but may cast themselves upon Thy mercy; and, returning again with penitence to the embrace of Thy love, may walk in the way of Thy commandments; through.

Careless.

REMEMBER, O loving Lord, all those that forget Thee: grant that they may consider their latter end and the coming of Thy fearful judgment, ere Thou pluck them away and there be none to deliver them.

Ungodly.

BREAK down, O Lord, the hostility of the ungodly and malicious, that they who make boast of their own heart's desires, and in their thoughts and their deeds deny Thee, may come in penitence to discern Thy judgments, and to acknowledge Thy wisdom, Thy power, and Thy love; through.

Ignorant.

O LORD, Thou God of knowledge, by Whom actions are weighed, have pity on all who know Thee not: let the arrogant talk no more so proudly, but bring Thou them low, that they may be lifted up: let the simple that stumbled be girded with strength and be made to inherit the throne of Thy glory: that all may know that there is none beside Thee, the rock of our salvation and the guardian of Thy saints, now and for evermore.

Worldly.

O LORD, Who hast promised a blessing to all who seek first Thy kingdom and the righteousness thereof; enlighten, we pray Thee, the hearts of those who are entangled among the things of this world; teach them, as men who are risen with Thee, so to set their affections on things above, that their life even now may be truly hid with Thee, O CHRIST, in GOD: with Whom in the unity of the HOLY GHOST Thou livest.

SHEW them, O LORD, the path of life, the fulness of joy in Thy holy presence, the eternal pleasures at Thy right hand; that they may set Thee always before themselves and have no good beyond Thee, the true portion of our inheritance and our GOD.

Proud.

HUMBLE, O LORD, the lofty looks of men, and bow thou down their haughtiness; that they may not presume upon wealth or birth, the pride of position, of intellect or of attainments, but tremble before Thee for the glory of Thy majesty, and contend only in a rivalry of lowliness in Thy sight.

Cruel and Tyrannical.

LOOK down, O Lord, upon all the earth, that is full of darkness and habitations of cruelty: break the power of the oppressor and deliver his victims; and unite them together in a common submission to Thy most gentle and easy yoke, O Lord of tenderness and pity.

Purity.

ALMIGHTY God, Who by Thy divine power hast given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness: grant that we fail not of Thine exceeding great and precious promises: but, escaping the corruption that is in the world through lust, may be made partakers of the divine nature: through the knowledge of Him, that hath called us by glory and virtue, Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

O GOD, the glory of the saints and the rewarder of the just, Who art above all and through all and in us all, Who acceptest the sacrifice of a contrite heart and the pure incense of our prayer: grant that we (and those for whom we pray) may be hallowed in heart, fervent in spirit, and chaste in body; that we may mortify the lusts of the world, and be enabled in purity of body and spirit to offer unto Thee an unceasing oblation of praise; through.

Liars.

O SPIRIT of truth, reprove and recover all those who sin by deceitful lips: that putting away lying they may speak every man truth with his neighbour, and bring all their words under the control of Thy holy inspiration.

Passionate.

O RIGHTEOUS Judge, provoked every day, but strong and patient and slow to anger; refrain the fierce wrath of passionate men, give gentleness to the irritable and meekness to the ill-tempered; that we, who have no hope but in Thy pardon and Thy mercy, may ourselves be slow to judge, slow to speak, and slow to wrath.

Quarrelsome.

GRANT unity, dear Lord, and a peaceful spirit to all who are tempted to be quarrelsome: that we may learn that we are members one of another, because all alike are members of Thee; Who livest.

The God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another, according to Christ Jesus our Lord.

Intemperate.

DELIVER our land, we beseech Thee, O Lord, from the crying sin of drunkenness, whereby it is so grievously defiled; and grant that they, who indulge in excess of drink, may have grace to check themselves, ere they have lost the power of self-control; and finding the unsatisfying nature of all earthly excitement, may come to hunger and thirst after righteousness, and attain to salvation; through.

Unbelievers.

O JESU, Word and Wisdom of the Father, Whom the natural heart cannot receive, we beseech Thee for all those that are aliens to the faith, that they, by the power of Thy Holy Spirit, may be made partakers of Thy heavenly knowledge, and rejoice with Thy people in the hope of Thy perfect vision in everlasting glory; through Thy mercy, O our God, Who livest and governest all things, blessed for evermore.

For the Double-minded.

O EVERLASTING God, Whose unchanging will is the law of all creation, have mercy upon those who are drawn aside from a holy persistence in the works of their calling, whether by a restless spirit of dissatisfaction or a desire of novelty (. .); and grant that they, resolving to carry out Thy will, may be indifferent to outward circumstances, and steadfast in the execution of the charge committed to them; through.

Heresy and Schism.

O MOST blessed Saviour Jesus, Who art the Way, the Truth, and the Life; bring back to the fold of Thy Church all those who are in error; instruct those who are in ignorance; and subdue the pride of man to the obedience of Thy holy laws. Let not Thy mysteries be sullied by the admixture of impure and heretical doctrines, nor Thy religion destroyed by the substitution of human fancy for Thy commandments; but grant that Thy truth may be so publicly maintained, constantly taught, humbly believed, and zealously practised by all men in their several stations, that we may dwell together in faith and charity, and glorify our Father which is in heaven; to Whom.

Faction.

HAVE mercy, O Lord, upon those who would stir up strife in any portion of Thy Church, and grant that they may abandon their self-will, and may return to unity and concord in humility and contentedness, according to the law of Thy most holy faith, and the brotherhood wherein we have been gathered; through.

Undenominationalism.

O GOD, Who hast revealed to us the whole gospel of salvation, and wouldest have all men go on unto perfection in the full knowledge of Thy revelation, have mercy on those who know only the bare elements thereof; and grant that they, laying aside prejudice, may strive to advance in the realization of Thy truth; and rising above human compromises may fully believe Thy divine teaching, and seek no other basis of Christian unity than the fulness of the faith once delivered to the saints.

Enemies of Religion.

O CHRIST, the Son of God, Who didst bear the revilings of unbelieving men when they carried Thee away to judgment; hear our prayer, and show Thy power, we beseech Thee, towards the enemies of Thy Church; that they who persecute Thee daily in Thy members, being converted to the mystery of the faith, may gratefully acknowledge along with us that Thou wast delivered for the ungodly, and that the ungodly attain to righteousness by the glory of Thy passion; Who livest.

WHILE Thine enemies, O LORD, shall feel Thy hand in vengeance against those who bend not their necks to Thy cross, let the right hand of Thy mercy find out them that hate Thee, but yet have not forfeited their claim upon Thy pity: that in time of Thy wrath and the revelation of Thy countenance they may not be made as a furnace of fire, but translated with us to receive their crown in the kingdom of life everlasting.

FOR CONVICTED CRIMINALS.

VOUCHSAFE, we beseech Thee, O LORD, unto all such as are under sentence of punishment a true sense of their crimes, true repentance for them, and Thy gracious pardon, that their souls may be saved in the day of the LORD JESUS; for His sake, Who underwent for them the death of the cross; Who now liveth.

FOR PENITENTIARIES, AND RESCUE WORK.

MOST gracious FATHER, I beseech Thee to bless with Thy special care all penitentiaries and homes of refuge (. . .). Look down in pity on those who are sheltered in them. Guide and protect those who have again gone into the world. Give them all true contrition for their past sins. Strengthen them in their good resolutions. Lead them onward from grace to grace, that by Thy

HOLY SPIRIT guiding them, they may persevere in the paths of obedience and humility and in striving against evil thoughts and desires.

And to those engaged in teaching and training them give Thy HOLY SPIRIT, that they may have a right judgment; and that in deep humility and singleness of purpose, purity of heart and life, and real zeal for Thy glory and the salvation of souls, they may labour for the love of Thee. Give them faith and hope to sustain them in disappointment, love and patience towards those under their charge; and in Thine own good time crown their labour with an eternal reward. Grant this, I beseech Thee, for our LORD JESUS CHRIST'S sake.

REFORMATORIES AND JUVENILE CRIME.

ROOT out, O LORD, all the seeds of evil wheresoever they have been sown in youthful hearts. Prosper all that is done to reform young offenders, that, apart from surroundings and companions of vice, they may learn to live as befits Thy children, and may be imbued and fortified with habits of obedience and piety; through.

FOR THE PENITENT.

O GOD, Who cleansest the penitent heart, and loosest the tender conscience from the bond of iniquity; pardon the guilty, heal the wounded, forgiving their sin by Thy sacramental grace, that they may suffer no eternal loss, but serve Thee henceforward with a true and lasting devotion.

Or,

NOW the GOD of peace, that brought again from the dead our LORD JESUS CHRIST, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight; through.

16. Grant, we beseech Thee, merciful LORD, to Thy faithful people . . .

LITANY

O LORD, Who didst come to call sinners to repentance,
Call them still and make them answer Thy call.
Be merciful to those who have no cloke for their sin,
But have seen and hated both Thee and Thy FATHER.

Thou Who didst melt the hardness of the thief,
Soften the hearts of all who are impenitent.

Thou Who didst recover the woman that was a sinner,
Recover all those who have fallen away from Thee.

Thou Who didst call Zacchæus from the sycamore tree,
Arouse the careless and arrest the curious.

Thou Who didst speak the words of spirit and of life,
Enlighten the ignorant and teach the unlearned;
Dispel all prejudices, correct all errors,
Establish Thy people in the truth of the gospel.

Thou Who didst call S. Matthew from the receipt of custom, Deliver many souls from the slavery of the world.

Thou Who didst pray for Thy murderers,

Pity those who oppose Thy rule and persecute Thy servants.

Thou Who didst cast out many devils,

Set free many by the power of Thy grace, who are possessed by the devils of drink and lust.

Deliver the victims of pride and anger, of greed and selfishness.

Thou Who didst satisfy the doubts of S. Thomas,

Deal gently with those who can scarcely believe.

Thou Who didst uplift the sinking S. Peter,

Support all those who are weak and unstable.

Thou Who didst come to proclaim deliverance to captives,

Pity all prisoners and loose the chain of their sins.

Thou Who didst heal the impotent man,

Uphold those who are weakened by past sin.

Thou Who didst still the tempest on the lake,

Rebuke the storms of passion and anger, and bid the waves be still.

Thou Who didst heal the withered hand,

Recover for many the faculties which they have lost, of prayer and work, of self-control and self-sacrifice.

Thou Who didst make both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak,

Open deaf ears to Thy message ;
Loosen stammering tongues to speak words of penitence.

Thou Who didst put to shame the woman of Samaria,

Reveal to many who are living in sin the shame of their life, and bring them to repentance.

Thou Who didst raise the dead to life,

Quicken dead souls to the life of righteousness.

JESUS ! JESUS ! JESUS !
Who didst come to save Thy people from their sins, Save us, O SAVIOUR.
Hosanna !

SATURDAY.

LORD, behold he whom Thou lovest is sick.

S. John xi. 3.

The prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the LORD shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him.

S. James v. 15.

When hearts are full of innermost distress,
And we are doomed to stand inactive by,
Watching the soul's or body's agony.
Which human effort helps not to make less—
Then like a cup capacious to contain
The overflowings of the heart, is prayer;
The longing of the soul is satisfied,
The keenest darts of anguish blunted are:
And though we cannot cease to yearn or grieve,
We yet have learned in patience to abide

R. C. TRENCH

The Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

Can thine or my groanings be called unutterable, when there are often none, when they are often cold?

He who prays for others, labours for himself.

If thou prayest for thyself alone, thou alone wilt pray for thyself.

If thou prayest for all, all pray for thee

General.

O GOD, Who art the author of love, and the lover of pure peace and affection, heal the diseases of all Christians who are sick, and let all who are terrified by fears, afflicted by poverty, harassed by tribulation, worn down by illness, given over to punishments, and all prisoners and wayfarers, be set free by Thine indulgent tenderness, raised up by amendment of life, and cherished by Thy daily compassion.

4. O Lord, we beseech Thee to keep Thy Church and household . . .

Our Father . . .

COLLECTS.

Widows and Widowers.

O GOD, Who hast been pleased for a while to rend asunder the union which Thou Thyself hadst blessed, console Thy servants in their hours of loneliness, and mitigate the trials of their loss. Give them submission to Thy gracious will, and a joyful looking forward to reunion at the last, where there is no more death, nor parting, nor sorrow, but indissoluble fellowship for all Thy faithful servants; through the merits of JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

Orphans.

LET the cry of the orphans and destitute children enter into Thine ears, O LORD of Sabaoth: be Thou the Father of the fatherless, and comfort them with a mother's tenderness; rescue them from the perils of this wicked world, and bring them to the refuge of Thy heavenly home; for JESUS CHRIST'S sake.

Bereaved.

NOW our LORD JESUS CHRIST Himself, and GOD even our FATHER, Which hath loved us and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts and stablish you in every good word and work.

For the Afflicted.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, the comfort of the sad, the strength of sufferers, let the prayers of those that cry out of any tribulation come unto Thee; that all may rejoice to find that Thy mercy is present with them in their afflictions; through.

Or,

RELIEVE and comfort all the persecuted and afflicted; speak peace to troubled consciences; strengthen the weak; confirm the strong; instruct the ignorant; deliver the oppressed from him that spoileth him, and relieve the needy that hath no helper; and bring us all, by the waters of comfort, and in the ways of righteousness, to the kingdom of rest and glory; through.

The Lonely.

LORD Jesus, we beseech Thee by the loneliness of Thy suffering on the Cross, be nigh unto all them that are desolate in pain or sorrow to-day; and let the magic of Thy presence transform their loneliness into comfort, consolation, and holy fellowship with Thee, Lord Jesus, Thou pitiful Saviour.

The Desperate.

O LORD, Whose sovereignty over all maketh Thee to be gracious unto all, reveal the almighty power of Thy grace to souls now sunk in the depths of despair: that they who have ceased to hope may begin to trust, and they who have lost all other confidence may be brought even by despair to confide in Thee, as Thou openest their eyes to behold Thy might, and their heart to respond to the persistence of Thy love, our gracious LORD and our GOD.

For the Poor.

Arise, O LORD GOD, and lift up Thine hand; forget not the poor.
Take his cause into Thy hand,
for he commits himself unto Thee,
and Thou art the helper of the friendless.

Or,

O LORD JESUS CHRIST, Who when on earth hadst not where to lay Thine head; have mercy upon all those who are in poverty and distress. Be Thou the comforter of the widow, the father of the orphan, the succour of those in distress, and their wealth in poverty; minister to their bodily necessities; supply their wants while they dwell upon earth; and bring them to that eternal kingdom where there are no tears, neither sorrow nor crying; Who livest.

Incompetent.

O LORD, Who hast made the small and the great, and carest for all alike, have pity on all who through force of circumstances, or even by their own fault, are unequal to the battle of life. Shelter them from degradation and sin, let Thine angels uphold their goings, and bear them from the turmoil and stress of the world to rest in safety in the peace of Paradise.

For the Aged.

O THOU, Who art the strength of our heart and our portion for ever, cast not away, O Lord, Thy servants in the time of age, forsake them not when their strength faileth: but the more their bodies decay day by day, so much the more strengthen their souls for their last account; through.

Losing Faculties or Disabled.

COMFORT, O Lord, the troubled soul of Thy servant . . . and by this trial draw more closely to Thyself one who longs to be entirely Thine.

For the Suffering.

O GOD of all grace, Who hast called us into Thine eternal glory in Christ: look mercifully upon these Thy servants, and after that they have suffered a little while, make them perfect, stablish, strengthen, and settle them.

For the Sick.

GOOD Jesu, physician of souls and bodies, make all sickness a healing medicine to the soul; soothe by Thy presence each ache and pain; hallow all suffering by Thine all-holy sufferings, and teach sufferers to unite their sufferings with Thine, to be hallowed by Thine.

Or,

O GOD, Who hast granted to mankind the medicine of salvation and the reward of eternal life, bestow upon Thy servant such a gift of healing power as may invigorate him both in body and soul; through.

For the Dying

O LORD Jesus Christ, Who in Thy last agony didst commend Thy Spirit into the hands of Thy heavenly Father; have mercy upon all sick and dying persons (especially . . .), and grant that they may omit nothing which is necessary to make their peace with Thee before they die; Who livest.

The Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

25. Hear us, Almighty and most . . .

26. Almighty, everliving God, Maker . . .

For Chronic Sufferers.

WE beseech Thee, most merciful God and Father, that as Thou givest Thy servants lengthened suffering, so Thou wilt give them faith and patience in the acceptance of Thy will, to offer themselves up without reserve to Thee; that they may be purged from all the remains of their natural self, and may be accepted of Thee; through.

For the Sleepless.

O HEAVENLY Father, Who holdest our eyes waking so that we cannot sleep, of Thy great goodness consider the weakness of Thy servants (. . .), and if it be Thy blessed will, grant them refreshing sleep. But if Thou shalt think fit to deny it, may Thy comforts refresh their souls. Enable them to meditate upon Thee in the watches of the night, to commune with their own hearts, and diligently search out their spirits. Suffer not vain thoughts to trouble them, nor let their spiritual enemies have power over them. Grant this for the sake.

For the Blind, Deaf, Dumb, Crippled.

WE implore Thy mercy, O Lord, the giver of all health, on behalf of our brethren who are troubled with manifold diseases by reason of the infirmity of the flesh

(. . .), that Thou, Who alone canst relieve them, wilt be pleased to visit them with Thy gracious presence ; through.

Lunatics and Imbeciles.

O LORD, Whose ways are past finding out, we pray Thee to look upon Thy servants whom Thou hast afflicted with weakness of mind. Grant them to be strengthened and enlightened by Thy Holy Spirit in the inner man, that they to whom Thou hast denied earthly wisdom may be filled with that knowledge of Thee which passeth all understanding.

Women in Travail.

LORD Jesus, Who wast pleased to be born of a Virgin, let the grace of Thy blessed incarnation rest upon all who are in travail, that abiding in faith and holiness, they may be saved in child-bearing by Thine own most tender loving-kindness.

Workhouses. Asylums.

POUR Thy blessing, O Lord, upon all institutions designed for the care of the destitute, the lunatic, and the aged. Be Thyself the portion of those from whom Thou hast withdrawn the comforts and enjoyments of the world : reconcile them to their position, that they may be content therein to abide Thy gracious pleasure, and to learn such submission to Thy holy will as shall enable them hereafter to rejoice in Thy glory.

Infirmaries.

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, Who canst banish all affliction both of soul and of body, shew forth the power of Thine aid upon those who need Thy succour, that by the help of Thy mercy they may be restored to serve Thee afresh in holiness of living; through.

Hospitals.

O LORD, let Thy perpetual providence guide and direct the conduct of hospitals: that doctors and students and nurses alike, together with the patients committed to their care, may be brought through contact with the mystery of suffering into union with Thee, where alone it is solved.

For Sick Nurses.

O GOOD Jesu, Who hast said, "Inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye do it unto Me," look upon those of Thy servants who have been called by Thee to tend Thy sick and suffering children (especially . . .). Give them patience and tenderness, wisdom and truthfulness, and the special guidance of Thy Holy Spirit in their work ; so that they may faithfully minister to those to whom Thou shalt send them, in Thee and for Thee, and may be found worthy, at the last, to receive Thy eternal reward ; for Thine own merits' sake.

Medical Students and Doctors.

O LORD, the healer of all our diseases, Who knowest how the sick have need of a physician : bless all whom Thou hast called to be sharers in Thine own work of healing with health alike of body and soul : that they may learn their art in dependence upon Thee, and exercise it always under Thy sanction and to Thy glory ; Who livest.

For the Dead.

ALMIGHTY, eternal God, to Whom there is never any prayer made without hope of mercy, be merciful to the souls of Thy servants departed from this world in the confession of Thy name, that they may be associate to the company of Thy saints ; through.

WE commend unto Thee, O Lord, the souls of Thy servants and handmaidens (. . .), and of all the faithful departed, that being dead to this world they may live to Thee : and whatsoever sins they have contracted through the frailty of their conversation in this world do Thou through the forgiveness of Thy most merciful pity wipe away.

QUICKEN, O LORD, our departed in Thy compassion, and set them at Thy right hand. Clothe them with excellent glory in Thy kingdom, and join them to the just and righteous who fulfil Thy will in Jerusalem which is above: O LORD of our death and of our life, FATHER, SON, and HOLY GHOST for ever.

LITANY.

FATHER of mercies, be merciful!

Thou refuge of the solitary,

Succour the widows and widowers,

Shelter the orphan, comfort the bereaved:

Cheer the afflicted, rejoice the sad,

Solace the lonely,

Enhearten the desperate:—

Ah, good LORD, grant it.

O Son of Man, be pitiful!

Thou merciful and faithful High Priest,

Thou Sharer of human sorrows,

May the oppressed be taught Thy patience,
the starving learn Thy endurance:

May the poor share Thy riches,
and the rich Thy poverty:

May the purposeless awake to Thy call,
the incompetent rise to Thy employment,
the enslaved and degraded be enfranchised by Thee,
the homeless find a home in Thee:—

Ah, good LORD, grant it.

O Spirit of life, be compassionate !
Thou Who transformest from glory to glory,
Bring to submission those who rebel,
Reconcile those in undeserved misery :
ennoble the weakness of the aged, hallow the losses of the failing :
transfigure all declining years, glorify anguish, trial, and pain :—
Ah, good LORD, grant it.

All-blessed Trinity of love and mercy, regard the dread agonies of a suffering world,
the sleepless tossing,
the numb despair,
the high fever, the chronic decay,
the crisis of disease, of childbirth, and operation :
the sick and the dying,
the penitent and the impenitent :—
Ah, good LORD, spare them :
Ah, good LORD, heal them.

Succour those that tend them,
working through them, and within them :
and grant to living and departed
a merciful judgment at that day. Amen.

O LORD JESUS, have mercy upon all sufferers; grant them continually meditating upon Thy holy life of suffering to realize in weakness the strength of Thy incarnation; in pain the triumph of Thy passion; in poverty the riches of Thy Godhead; in reproach the satisfaction of Thy sympathy; in loneliness the comfort of Thy continual presence; in difficulty the efficacy of Thine intercession; in perplexity the guidance of Thy wisdom. And bring them of Thy mercy, when this suffering life is past, to that glorious kingdom which by Thy suffering Thou didst purchase for all who would take refuge in Thy mediation; Who livest.

May the LORD of His mercy grant to us with all His faithful people living and departed, rest and peace.

THANKSGIVING.

Whoso offereth me thanks and praise,
he honoureth me.

Psalm l. 23.

Would you know who is the greatest saint in the world? It is not he who prays most, or fasts most; it is not he who gives most alms, or is most eminent for temperance, chastity, and justice; but it is he who is always thankful to GOD, who wills everything that GOD willeth, who receives everything as an instance of GOD's goodness, and has a heart always ready to praise GOD for it.

All prayer and devotion, fastings and repentance, meditation and retirement, all sacraments and ordinances, are but so many means to render the soul thus divine, and conformable to the Will of GOD, and to fill it with thankfulness and praise for everything that comes from GOD.

If any one would tell you the shortest, surest way to all happiness, and all perfection, he must tell you to make a rule to yourself to thank and praise GOD for everything that happens to you. For it is certain that whatever seeming calamity happens to you, if you thank and praise GOD for it, you turn it into a blessing.

I exhort you to this method in your devotion, that every day may be made a day of thanksgiving, and that the spirit of murmur and discontent may be unable to enter into the heart which is so often employed in singing the praises of GOD.

W LAW, A Serious Call, ch. xv.

Let us "in everything give thanks, whether we eat or drink, or whatsoever we do." What holy whispers would pass to and fro between the FATHER and us, if, at every heart's beat and at every pulse of breath, we could repeat our untiring hallelujah with them on high, who, again and again, at each pause, at each close of GOD's unceasing display are ever saying, again and yet again, "Hallelujah." Here is the secret of Christian cheerfulness; and no power on earth can break it down when once we have discovered that there is absolutely nothing but sin itself which is not fitted to renew and to replenish the delight of giving thanks. Why, then, are any Christian faces clouded and thick? Why are there any Christian hearts that are sullen and tired? Call upon your spirits to give thanks unto the LORD GOD. That door of escape is ever open, that gateway into gladness can never be shut; and, day after day, you can "magnify the LORD, and worship His name, ever world without end." "Lift up your hearts unto the LORD," for, indeed, "it is meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks" to GOD for His great glory.

H. S. HOLLAND, Creed and Character, p. 309.

S. Paul's Christianity is a religion of thankfulness . . . The secret of this thankfulness is that he looks straight away from himself and his surroundings up to GOD. He measures the value of human life and work, not by what immediate experience suggests, but by what he knows of the purpose of GOD. In spite of all the obstacles opposed by human wilfulness and weakness and sin, He knows that His purpose will effect itself: therefore he "rejoices in the LORD always," and no discouraging circumstances can quench the springs of his rejoicing. Our Christianity is apt to be of a very "dutiful" kind. We mean to do our duty, we attend Church and go to our Communions. But our hearts are full of the difficulties, the hardships, the obstacles which the situation presents, and we go on our way sadly, down-hearted and despondent. We need to learn, or learn anew, from S. Paul that true Christianity is inseparable from deep joy; and the secret of that joy lies in a continual looking away from all else—away from sin and its ways, and from the manifold hindrances to the good we would do—up to GOD, His love, His purpose, His will. In proportion as we do look up to Him we shall rejoice, and in proportion as we rejoice in the LORD will our religion have tone and power and attractiveness.

C. GORE, Epistle to the Ephesians, pp. 83, 84

SUNDAY.

Be filled with the SPIRIT; speaking one to another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody with your heart to the LORD; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our LORD JESUS CHRIST to GOD, even the FATHER.

Eph. v. 19–21.

THE GREAT DELIVERANCE.

I.—FOR THY MERCIES VOUCHSAFED TO US IN ANSWER TO PRAYERS FOR PENITENCE.

For all returning penitents, awakening to righteousness, ignorance and prejudice dispelled,
pride and anger subdued, triumph of truth and meekness,
of temperance and purity,
unbelief vanquished,
dissenters reconciled, prisoners and paupers cared for,
happiness restored to homes,
wanderers returned to the fold.

O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is gracious, Because His mercy endureth for ever.
Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

II.—Personal Thanksgiving for Past Deliverance.

Temptations averted.—Ps. ix. 1–4.

I will give thanks unto Thee, O Lord,
With my whole heart,
I will speak of all Thy marvellous works:
I will be glad and rejoice in Thee,
Yea, my songs will I make of Thy name,
O Thou most highest.
While mine enemies are driven back,
They shall fall and perish at Thy presence:
Thou hast maintained my right and my cause,
Thou art set in the throne
That judgest right.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee.
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

Temptations overcome.—Ps. cxxiv. 5, 6.

Praised be the Lord,
Who hath not given us over for a prey
Unto the teeth of the enemy.
Our soul is escaped
Even as a bird out of the snare of the fowler:
The snare is broken,
And we are delivered.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

SINS FORGIVEN.—Ps. lvi. 12, 13.

Unto Thee, O LORD, will I pay my vows, Unto Thee will I give thanks.
For Thou hast delivered my soul from death,
Mine eyes from tears,
And my feet from falling,
That I may walk before GOD
In the light of the living.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

SINS OVERRULED FOR GOOD.—Ps. xciv. 17, 18.

If Thou, LORD, hadst not helped me,
It had not failed
But my soul had been put to silence.
But when I said, "My foot slippeth,"
Thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee.
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

DELIVERANCE FROM ERROR.—Ps. cxviii. 27; cxlvi. 7.

GOD is the LORD Who hath shewed us light;
Thou, LORD, loosest men out of prison,
Thou, LORD, givest sight to the blind.
Yea, Thou, LORD, hast freed and enlightened me.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

FROM INDIFFERENCE.—Ps. cxviii. 21, 22

I will thank Thee, for Thou hast heard me,
And art become my salvation.
The same Stone Whom I had refused
Has become my Chief Corner Stone.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

FROM TROUBLE.—Ps. cxviii. 5; liv. 6, 7.

I called upon Thee in trouble
And Thou, LORD, heardest me at large,
An offering of a free heart will I give Thee,
And praise Thy name, O LORD,
Because it is so comfortable.
For Thou hast delivered me out of all my trouble.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

FROM TRIALS.—Ps. cxviii. 18.

Thou, LORD, has chastened and corrected me,
But Thou hast not given me over unto death.
Nay, Thou didst open me
The gates of righteousness,
That I might go into them
And give thanks unto Thee.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

FROM BAD HABIT.—Ps. xviii. 19.

Thou hast brought me forth into a place of liberty,
Thou hast brought me forth,
Even because Thou hadst a favour unto me.

Thou art my God, and I will thank Thee:
Thou art my God, and I will praise Thee.

JESUS, Who deliverest the captives:
JESUS, Who openest the prison of the prisoners:
JESUS, Who recoverest sight for the blind,

S. Luke xvii. 15–18.

BLESSINGS HIDDEN AND DISGUISED.

I.—FOR THY MERCIES, CORRESPONDING TO OUR PRAYERS, FOR "SUFFERING AND REST."

For all suffering—physical, mental, spiritual:
patiently borne,
which has brought souls to Thee,
caused others to glorify Thee, called out tenderness for others.

For the patient endurance of the poor, lives sanctified by poverty, their generosity to one another,
skill and tenderness in doctors and nurses, institutions for the relief of suffering.

For all those who have departed this life in Thy faith and fear.

Ps. cxix. 12, 27.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
O teach me Thy statutes.

Reproof, deserved.—Ps. cxli. 5; cxix. 59, 59c

Blessed art Thou, etc.

Injuries, undeserved.—Ps. cxix. 51, 52

Trouble.—Ps. cxix. 67, 71, 75.

Before I was troubled I went wrong,
But now have I kept Thy word.
It is good for me that I have been in trouble,

That Thy judgments are right:
And that Thou of very faithfulness
Hast caused me to be troubled.
Blessed art Thou, etc.

SICKNESS.—Ps. xli. 3; ix. 13.

And Thou broughtest me out Into a wealthy place.
Blessed art Thou, O Lord,
O teach me Thy statutes.
Make me to understand the way of Thy commandments:
And so shall I talk of Thy wondrous works.

APOSTLES, EVANGELISTS, DOCTORS. — Ps. xvi. 3; xix. 4; lxxviii. 6; lxviii. 11.

All my delight is upon the saints
That excelled in virtue upon the earth.
Their sound went out into all lands,
And their words into the ends of the world.

To the intent that when they came up
They might shew their children the same.
The LORD gave the word,
Great was the company of the preachers.

O give thanks, etc.

Since the poor shall not alway be forgotten,
The patient abiding of the meek
Shall not perish for ever.
Nay, rather they possess the earth,
And are refreshed in the multitude of peace.
They see the felicity of GOD'S chosen,
And rejoice in the gladness of His people.

Thy truth, most mighty Lord, is on every side.

The World.—Ps. lxxxix. 10, 12.

In wisdom hast Thou made them all,
The earth is full of Thy riches.

Might be known unto men.

O Lord God, etc.

A CHORUS OF PRAISE.—Ps. cxlv.

While all Thy works praise Thee, O LORD,
And Thy saints give thanks unto Thee,

And let all flesh give thanks Unto His holy name
For ever and ever.

Direct their ways, perfect their undertakings, make the crooked straight and the rough places plain. Remember, Lord, Thy children, to guard them in innocency;

℟. But guide Thou the just.

ALMIGHTY GOD, we beseech Thee to hear our prayers for such as sin against Thee, or neglect to serve Thee [especially those in . . . and others for whom our prayers are desired], that Thou wouldest vouchsafe to bestow upon them true repentance, and an earnest longing for Thy service; through.

3.—For the advancement and perseverance of the faithful.

Ant. Thy God had sent forth strength for thee, stablish the thing, O God, that Thou hast wrought in us.

℣. They will go from strength to strength;
℟. And unto the God of gods appeareth every one of them in Sion.

VOUCHSAFE, we beseech Thee, O Lord, to strengthen and confirm all Thy faithful [especially those in . . . and all others for whom we are desired to pray], and to lift them up more and more continually to heavenly desires; through.

A PLEADING FOR SINNERS.

I.—For sins against the Commandments; to the God and Father of all.

1. Godliness.—S. Matt. vi. 33.

Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.
Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.

Col. i. 12–20.

O FATHER, Who didst make us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
deliver the ungodly from the power of darkness, and translate them into the kingdom of Thy dear Son; reconcile all rebels to Thyself
by Him Who has made peace through the blood of His cross, in Whom all fulness dwells, Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

2. WORSHIP.—S. Matt. iv. 10.

Thou shalt worship the LORD thy GOD, and Him only shalt thou serve.

1 S. John i. 5–7.

O GOD, Who art light, and in Whom is no darkness at all ;
grant that Thy people may love to serve Thee,
and walk in the light of Thy revealed presence, being cleansed from sin and from all unrighteousness
by the blood of JESUS CHRIST Thy SON.

3. SOUND SPEECH.—S. Matt. v. 33.

Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy GOD in vain.
Let your communication be "Yea, yea ; Nay, nay."

S. John ii. 1, 2, 12 ; iv. 9, 10.

O FATHER, hear our advocate,
JESUS CHRIST the righteous, that He Whom in very love Thou hast sent may be the propitiation for our sins, and for the sins of the whole world.
May all who have offended against Thy holy name be forgiven their offences for His name's sake, and live through Him.

4. WORK AND REST.—S. Mark ii. 27.

Six days shalt thou labour;
but the seventh day thou shalt keep holy.
The Sabbath was made for man, and the Son of Man is LORD thereof.

2 Cor. v. 19–21.

O GOD, Who hast made Thy SON our LORD,
though He knew no sin, to be sin for us:
Grant that in Him the unrighteous may be made righteous, and the world by Thy laws of work and rest and worship be speedily reconciled unto Thyself.

5. OBEDIENCE.—S. Matt. xv. 4.

Honour thy father and mother.

Rom. iii. 25.

O GOD, Who hast set forth Thy SON to be a propitiation through faith in His blood; Grant to the disobedient
the remission of sins that are past, through Thine own forbearance,
and the redemption that is in CHRIST JESUS.

6. LOVE.—S. Matt. v. 21; v. 39.

Thou shalt not kill: nor be angry.
Resist not evil.

Rom. v. 8.

O GOD, Who commendest Thy love toward us;
in that while we were yet sinners
CHRIST died for us;
Grant that, though men have sinned
through hatred and wrath, being justified by His blood
they may be saved from Thy wrath;
and being reconciled by His death
may be saved by His life.

7. SELF-CONTROL.—S. Matt. v. 27.

Thou shalt not commit adultery: nor lust.

Rom. viii. 3.

O GOD, Who sending Thine own dear SON in the likeness of sinful flesh, and on behalf of sin,
hast condemned sin in the flesh;
Grant that by the law of the Spirit of life
in CHRIST JESUS, sinners may be made free
from the law of sin and death.

8. HONESTY.—S. Mark x. 19.

Thou shalt not steal.
Defraud not.

Gal. i. 4.

O GOD, our FATHER, according to Whose will
the LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST
once gave Himself for our sins;
Grant that He may deliver all men from the snares of dishonesty in this present evil world.

9. GENEROSITY.—S. Matt. vii. 1.

Thou shalt not bear false witness.
Judge not.

Eph. i. 7.

O GOD, according to the riches of Thy grace grant that those who are given to evil speaking may have redemption from this slavery of the enemy, through the precious blood of JESUS CHRIST,
even the forgiveness of all their sins.

10. CONTENTMENT.—S. Luke xii. 15.

Thou shalt not covet.
Beware of covetousness.

Eph. ii. 4.

O GOD, Who art rich in mercy for Thy great love wherewith Thou lovest us, quicken all those that are dead in sins,
and raise them above the sordid level of this world,
to sit with Thee in heavenly places, and enjoy the exceeding riches of Thy grace revealed in Thy kindness towards us through CHRIST JESUS.

LOVE.—S. Matt. xix. 19.

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

Col. ii. 12.

O GOD, Who hast raised up JESUS from the dead, quicken together with Him all who are dead in selfishness and sin and the uncircumcision of their flesh:
forgive them all their trespasses, and cancel the bond that is against them,
nailing it to His cross,
O loving and merciful FATHER. Amen.

II.—For sinners through the Capital Sins; to our Blessed Saviour Jesus.

Envy and Illwill.—Heb. i. 3; ii. 16–18.

O CHRIST, our merciful and faithful High Priest, Who once for all hast purged our sins, and art seated on the right hand of the majesty on high;
Make reconciliation there for the sins of the people who transgress through envy, hatred, and malice,
and as Thou Thyself hast suffered,
in all points being tempted,
so do Thou succour evermore them that are tempted, and deliver them from subjection to the bondage of sin.

Anger.—Heb. iv. 14–16.

O JESUS, Son of God, our great High Priest,
that art passed into the heavens;
Grant that the ill-tempered and angry souls for whom I plead before the throne of grace may obtain mercy
both now and at Thy judgment-seat, and find grace to help in time of need.

LUST.—Heb. vii. 24–26

O JESUS, High Priest of an unchangeable priesthood, holy, harmless,
undefiled, separate from sinners,
and made higher than the heavens;
Save to the uttermost from the lusts of the flesh
all those that come to GOD by Thee, through the grace of Thine eternal intercession.

AVARICE AND WORLDLINESS.—Heb. ix. 11.

O CHRIST, our High Priest of good things to come,
Who through the eternal SPIRIT didst offer Thyself without spot to GOD the FATHER, and obtain for us eternal redemption;
Grant that the blood which Thou hast shed may purge men's consciences from the dead works of the world to serve the living GOD.

SLOTH.—Heb. ix. 24–28.

O CHRIST, Who once in the end of the world
didst appear as Victim to put away sin
by the sacrifice of Thyself, and wast offered once to bear the sins of many;
O CHRIST, Who as Priest art entered into heaven
now to appear in the presence of GOD for us;

Grant that Thy servants may be zealous in Thy service,
looking for Thee and Thy Second Coming;
and appear Thou to them in that great Day, without sin unto salvation,
O JESUS our SAVIOUR and GOD.

GLUTTONY AND DRUNKENNESS.—1 S. Pet. ii. 21.

O CHRIST, Who hast suffered for us, and sinless Thyself hast borne our sins
in Thine own body on the tree;
Grant that all sinners may die to sins of the flesh, and being healed by Thy stripes may live unto righteousness;
That all Thy sheep who were going astray through excess or want of self-control may now return again unto Thee,
the Shepherd and Bishop of their souls.

PRIDE AND CONCEIT.—1 S. Pet. iii. 18.

O CHRIST, Who once for all hast suffered for sins,
the just for the unjust,
to bring us to GOD;
Recover evermore from pride and disobedience those who presume upon the long-suffering of GOD,
by the prevailing virtue of Thy death and the quickening power of Thine endless Life;
O JESUS, our SAVIOUR and merciful LORD.

III.—Against our threefold deadly foe; to God the Holy Spirit.

The World.—Heb. x. 10–17.

O HOLY GHOST, Who art witness to us of the offering of the body of JESUS CHRIST once for all, whereby He hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified; Deliver Thy people from the service of the world, put Thy laws into our hearts,
and write them in our minds, that our sins and iniquities may be remembered no more.

The Flesh.—Heb. x. 26–30

O HOLY SPIRIT, have mercy on those who sin wilfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, who have trodden under foot the SON of GOD, and profaned the sanctifying Blood of the Covenant,
and done despite unto Thee the SPIRIT of Grace:
That by the fearful expectation of judgment they may be led to penitence and amendment of life, and escape the fiery indignation and vengeance which shall devour the adversaries with punishment sorer than death in the day when the LORD shall judge
His people.

THE DEVIL.—Heb. vi. 4.

BLEST SPIRIT renew evermore unto repentance all those who have been enlightened, have been made partakers of Thee,
and have tasted of the heavenly gift;
lest they should fall away
through the craft of the Devil, where there is no place left for repentance;
and crucifying the SON of GOD afresh,
and putting Him to an open shame, should be as thorns and briars that are rejected and nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.
Spare them and us,
O patient and gentle SPIRIT.

A PRAYER OF HUMILIATION FOR THE CHURCH OR NATION.

Dan. ix.

O LORD, the great and dreadful GOD, which keepest covenant and mercy with them that love Thee and keep Thy commandments:
We have sinned and have dealt perversely,
and have done wickedly and have rebelled, even turning aside from Thy precepts and from Thy judgments.

O LORD, righteousness belongeth unto Thee,
but unto us confusion of face as at this day, because we have sinned against Thee.
To the LORD our GOD belong mercies and forgivenesses, for we have rebelled against Him:
neither have we obeyed
the voice of the LORD our GOD, to walk in His laws which He set before us.
O LORD, according to all Thy righteousness, let Thine anger and Thy fury, I pray Thee,
be turned away;
because for our sins
and for the iniquities of our fathers Thy people are become a reproach to all that are round about us.
Now therefore, O our GOD, hearken unto the prayer of Thy servant, and to his supplications, and cause Thy face to shine upon Thy sanctuary that is desolate.
O my GOD, incline Thine ear and hear:
open Thine eyes, and behold our desolations,
and the city, which is called by Thy name.
For we do not present our supplications before Thee for our righteousnesses, but for Thy great mercies.
O LORD, hear: O LORD, forgive:
O LORD, hearken and do: defer not:
For Thine own sake, O my GOD; Because Thy city and Thy people are called by Thy name.

I. Mission Stations.

HEAR us, O God of our salvation, Thou Hope of all the ends of the earth, and in Thy strength set fast as the mountains these outposts of Thy power and strongholds of lofty virtues. On Thee we rely for gifts of aspiration whereby to ascend to the summit of all blessedness; that Thy Church, as it extends to all corners of the world, may soar in faith, may rest in hope, and rise to the full height of charity; through.

II. For Priests.

O JESU our God, Who with a scourge of small cords dravest forth from Thy temple those that sold and bought therein; guard Thy Priests from being ensnared by the pursuit of worldly comfort within the Church, and from spending there immoral or unworthy lives; but let the zeal of Thy house so entirely consume them, that they may set an example to their brethren which shall be well-pleasing unto Thee; Who with.

III. For the Heathen.

O CHRIST, Who hast passed over the unbelieving Jews to gather out of every race a countless flock into Thy Church; fulfil the word of Thy inspired prophecy, that all the ends of the world shall remember themselves and turn to Thee, their God. Grant that, as Thou alone art the SAVIOUR of all the world, so all peoples and nations may worship Thee alone. Raise up to Thyself believing sons from Jew and Gentile alike, that those who seek Thee may go forward into the kingdom of faith, and those who have found Thee may not forfeit through sin their inheritance.

IV. FOR CONVERTS.

LEAD forth, O LORD, beside the waters of comfort, the children Thou hast begotten through the water of baptism; there fill them with Thy teaching, and draw away their heart to the place of Thy promised reward among the blessed.

V. FOR THE NEWLY BAPTIZED.

O GOD, Who hast renewed in the font Thy servants who believe in Thee; grant to them now being born again in CHRIST such a full measure of protection, that, fortified by Thy Sacrament against the assaults of error, they may never forfeit the grace of Thy blessing; through.

VI. NATIVE CONGREGATIONS.

GRANT, O LORD, abundance of peace to those that stand in the gates of Thy house; that, while they worship Thee with eagerness of heart, they may be enriched with Thy heavenly mercies; through.

VII. The Harvest of Souls.

O GOD, Who dost build up the heavenly Jerusalem, Who tellest the number of the stars, and callest them all by their names; heal, we beseech Thee, those that are broken in heart, gather together the outcasts of Thy people, and enrich us all with Thine inestimable wisdom; through.

A FINAL PERSONAL OBLIGATION.

For those whom I have injured.

O LORD God Almighty and All-merciful, cleanse those whom I have defiled,
heal those whom I have wounded,
strengthen those whom I have enfeebled, set right those whom I have misled, recall to Thyself those whom I have alienated from Thee.
I pray Thee save these sinners,
save all sinners,
and amongst all sinners save me the sinner,
for Jesus' sake, the Friend of sinners. Amen.

For those who have done me good.

Rev. xi. 18.

O LORD Jesus, Who knowest them that are Thine when Thou rewardest Thy servants the prophets, remember, I beseech Thee, for good, those who have taught me, rebuked me, counselled me, guided me: and in that day show them mercy.

When Thou rewardest the Saints, remember, I beseech Thee, for good, those who have surrounded me with holy influences, borne with me, forgiven me, sacrificed themselves for me, loved me: and in that day show them mercy.

When Thou rewardest the great that fear Thy name, remember I beseech Thee, for good, those who have been my patterns of any virtue or grace, of repentance, acknowledgement of offences, begging of pardon, obedience, patience, perseverance: and in that day show them mercy.

When Thou rewardest the small that fear Thy name, remember, I beseech Thee, for good, ignorant disciples, halting followers, weak cross-bearers, the kneelers on feeble knees, the faint believers who faint not utterly: and in that day show them mercy.

Nor forget any, nor forget me: but in that day show us mercy. Amen.
